

FAST CROWD SEES START OF FLIGHT TO HONOLULU

Thousands Gasp as Accidents Mar Take-off in Epic Race; Girl Still Speeds on

The real "dark horse" of the aerial derby was the Woolaroo 254 miles out. Davis at that time reported: "Radio beacons coming fine." In the 8 a.m. message no mention was made of the radio beacons. Davis said: "Seven hours out. All going fine." His seven hours is believed to refer to the passing of the Golden Gate.

DARK HORSE
The Golden Eagle, piloted by Jack Frost and navigated by Gordon Scott, was the real "dark horse" of the aerial derby as the night wore on. Nothing had been seen nor heard of it since it passed the Golden Gate twenty-five minutes after leaving Bay Farm Field at 12:30 p.m. At that time the yellow monoplane was so high it was scarcely discernible in the haze, but appeared to be traveling well.

"Marty" Jensen's homing Aloha had not been reported since 2:50 p.m. when it passed the Matson liner Wilhelmina, 175 miles out, and the freighter Silver Fir, 200 miles out, in rapid succession at a speed estimated by ship's crews at eighty-six miles an hour.

The Aloha's position was reported to be about thirty miles from the great circle and it was believed here that the veering from the course was accounted for by the fact that Martin Jensen, the Aloha pilot from Honolulu, was flying low, beneath the fog, and that as a consequence, his navigator, Paul Schuster, sea captain of many years' experience, was steering the speeding plane by "dead reckoning."

The Miss Doran passed over the Paranalones at 2:45 p.m. It had previously passed the San Francisco lightship, twelve miles from the Golden Gate, at 2:30 p.m.

Because only the Woolaroo is equipped with radio sending apparatus, the Radio Corporation late tonight appealed to all steamships to watch very carefully for the flyers. Information was sent that the flyers would flash their location when passing ships, with hand flashlights.

NUMBER OF FLASHES
The Golden Eagle, which was number four in the starting list, was to give four flashes; the Miss Doran five, the Aloha seven, and the Woolaroo eight.

Of the eight planes qualified as starters this morning for the great aerial event in history only three got away in their first trials when the starting flag dropped at noon. They were joined later by the Miss Doran on its second trial, providing the four who are soaring their way through the skies tonight.

Two were wrecked in vain attempts to get off the ground at Bay Farm Field and two others returned after starting.

The monoplane El Encanto, designed, constructed and piloted by Norman A. Goddard of San Diego, former navy flyer, tipped on its right wing and "cracked up" near the bottom of the 7200-foot runway. Into its wreckage went the finances that Goddard acquired to build it by selling out a commercial flying business in San Diego.

The Pacific Flyer, which Maj. Livingston G. Irving of Berkeley intended to fly alone, failed to get off the ground on its first trial and was wrecked on the second attempt.

FORCED TO RETURN
The Dallas Spirit, piloted by Capt. William F. Erwin, and the Oklahoma, piloted by Bennett H. Griffin, got beyond the Golden Gate but had to come back. The Dallas Spirit had its fuselage torn partly off by stiff winds and the Oklahoma developed engine trouble.

Both these planes, it was announced tonight, will take the air tomorrow morning as soon as daylight as possible, if any of the present flyers come down and if the repairs are completed.

The greatest throng that ever witnessed a sporting event in the bay district lined the sides of the Oakland municipal airport for the flight take-off. It conservatively was estimated that more than 125,000 spectators thrilled to the starts and the failures.

On every vantage point around the bay countless others craned their necks and watched as the mechanical eagles swept down the bay toward the open sea.

Each aviator, prior to the start, was given a letter from Postmaster Power to be delivered to the postmaster at Honolulu.

And as the ships of the sky flew on through the night, forty-nine ships of the sea were strewn across the Pacific to aid them if need be and cheer them on if not.

Twenty are merchantmen, twelve of which are in the direct line of flight, and either others divided on either side.

Twenty-nine are United States naval vessels, most of them spread over the entire territory surrounding the Hawaiian chain, where it is felt that they will be the greatest danger if navigation goes awry.

In addition, the army radio beacons are singing through the ether to guide the planes on the radio lane that two other pairs of flying heroes have traversed.

THROUGH THRILLED
The take-offs thrilled the vast throng to the core.

Of the original fifteen entrants, there were only nine left last night on the starting line and only eight today after the Air King officially had been disqualified because of insufficient gasoline capacity for its intended cruising speed.

At 11:45 a.m. the motor of the Oklahoma, first on the starting line, began to roar. Across the upper end of the field, where all the ships were parked in roped inclosures, other motors hummed into the refrain.

At 12:05 p.m. the motor of the Oklahoma, first on the starting line, began to roar. Across the upper end of the field, where all the ships were parked in roped inclosures, other motors hummed into the refrain.

At 12:11 p.m. before Maj. Livingston Irving, in his Breeze-built Pabco Pacific Flyer, was given the flag, as it was necessary to clear the El Encanto from the bottom of the runway.

GOLDEN EAGLE OFF
Irving, the only lone pilot in the race, gained momentum speedily and tried early for a take-off. His ship bumped up and down six times in all, but finally came down to stay.

It was nineteen minutes when the Pacific Flyer was cleared of the runway for the Golden Eagle.

At 12:30 p.m. Jack Frost and Gordon Scott in the flaming yellow Lockheed-Vega plane roared through the starting circle. The plane is considered the fastest in the derby. It gained altitude readily and soared off to the west.

Two minutes later, the Miss Doran raced through the circle. John "Angie" Pedlar was at the controls, and the yellowed straw hat with the faming band that has gained him the nickname of the "straw hat flyer" was askew on his head. With him in the huge Buhl biplane was Lieut. Virgil R. Knoop, navigator, and back of him, Miss Mildred Doran, the flying school matron of Caro, Mich.

The biplane, with its greater wing surface, took the air easily. Pedlar was less than half the distance along the runway before he was up, giving the winging away across the bay, climbing fast.

PERFECT GET-AWAY
Little "Marty" Jensen in the Aloha, grinning like the fabled Cheshire cat, was next. A mighty cheer went up as the yellow Breeze monoplane roared through the circle at 12:34 p.m.

Two minutes behind Jensen, or at 12:36 p.m., Arthur C. Goebel of Los Angeles and Lieut. William V. Davis, Jr., of Atlanta, roared into "Marty's" dust.

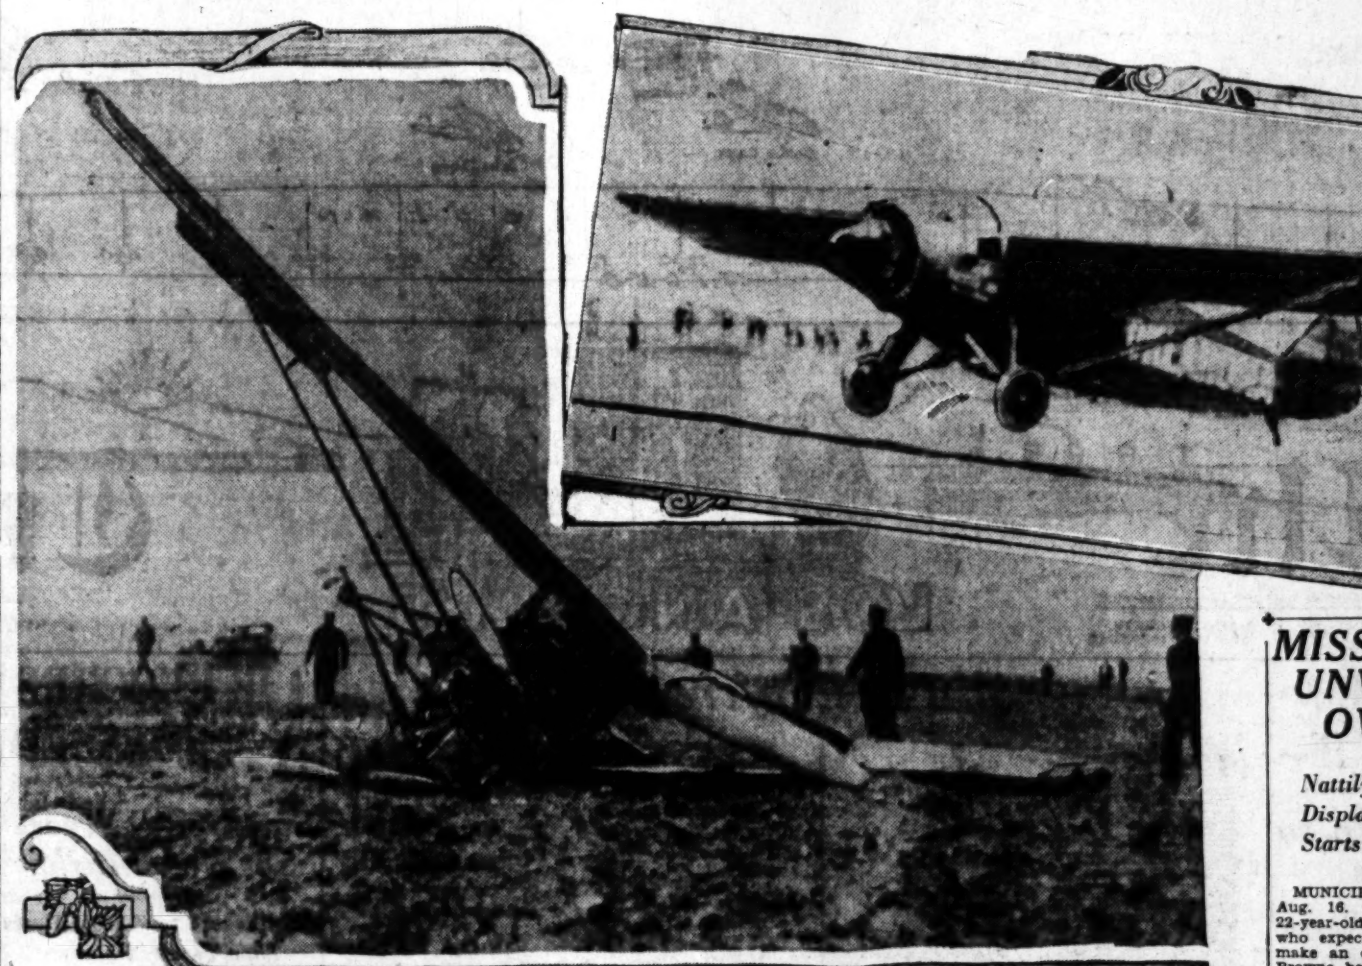

Goebel's take-off was a paragon. He took his time, but not enough to cause anxiety. The tail lifted slowly and steadily. The ship became buoyant. Then, just as steadily, it rose. Goebel did not touch the ground again. He kept right on soaring and a wave of appreciation welled across the field.

Capt. William F. Erwin and Alvin H. Schwaldt in the Dallas Spirit, were right on the Woolaroo's tail. They were exactly a minute apart. Erwin touched the ground once with the giant green bird that hoped to push onto Hongkong, and then he was away.

Irving's Pabco Pacific Flyer was brought back for a new start. As it was brought up the field, the line of vision encountered the fog, which was a sympathy quite frankly tinged with an element of happiness. There were many who would not have given much for the chances of the Air King to make the hazardous journey to Hawaii.

MISS DORAN BACK
Just as Irving began refusing his orange flyer half-way down the runway, there was a shout and a groan. Out of the sky to the southwest

Start of Great Race to Hawaii Marred by Crashes

First Plane off and One of the Unlucky Ones
The monoplane Oklahoma, piloted by Bennett Griffin and navigated by Al Henley, is shown leaving the ground at the start of the Dole race yesterday. It was the first to get away and its take-off was perfect. The monoplane El Encanto, the second to start, ended its take-off in a crash, the result being shown in the other picture. Its pilot and navigator, Norman Goddard and Kenneth Hawkins, escaped unhurt. The Oklahoma was forced to return later by engine trouble.

They were going to get into the air. It was a full minute before the ship rose. Only for a moment, and it was back on the ground again. The excessive weight and its hazard began to dawn on the spectators for the first time. Then, almost lost to sight at the bottom of the runway, the Oklahoma rose. Even then Griffin was a long time gaining altitude.

When he passed Alameda it was estimated he was not more than 100 feet in the air.

EL ENCANTO CRASHES
The El Encanto, with Lieut. Norman Goddard at the stick and Lieut. Kenneth C. Hawkins navigating, passed the starting circle as soon as the Oklahoma was in the air. The official starting time was 12:30 p.m. Goddard, like Griffin before him, roared to the bottom of the runway.

Just as the ship seemed about to rise, fate gripped it. The right wing dipped. There was a cloud of dust and the solid silver machine tipped up and over on its right side, crashing to earth with a splintering roar. Fortunately, neither of the two flyers was injured. The wives of the two flyers met them as they stepped from the wreck.

Tears in his eyes, Hawkins said: "I would rather have crashed in midocean than to have had this happen."

Goddard, long, lean and likeable, was mute with disappointment. The ship was his own design and chiefly his own construction.

It was eight minutes later, or at 12:11 p.m. before Maj. Livingston Irving, in his Breeze-built Pabco Pacific Flyer, was given the flag, as it was necessary to clear the El Encanto from the bottom of the runway.

FEDERAL PLANE TEST URGED

Government Should Examine All New Models, Declares Flyer Whose Machine Crashed

Theodore S. Lundgren was navigator and Capt. James L. Giffin pilot of the giant biplane Spirit of Los Angeles entered in the Dole flight and wrecked when it crashed in San Francisco Bay Thursday on its trip from Long Beach to Oakland. Giffin was piloting the plane when it crashed and laid blame to faulty controls and failure of motors to function properly.

BY THEODORE S. LUNDGREN
Many opinions have been given as to the benefits of the Dole Hawaiian race. Some people believe that the unfortunate accidents caused recently by new types of airplanes for this race have greatly hindered the progress of aviation. It is true, of course, that new improvements are needed constantly to further progress and that aviation is advancing rapidly. Also that designers and builders of new types of airplanes have the honest belief that their particular types will have an advantage over others.

The Dole race has caused an enormous amount of interest from all over the world. It has been noted at the starting point in Oakland, where planes, pilots and navigators from different parts of the country got ready for the hop. Each pilot and navigator had the fullest confidence in his own plane. The aviation bureau of the Department of Commerce is to be thanked for its wisdom in having representatives on the field thoroughly inspecting each plane as to its stability and thoroughly testing the ability of each pilot and navigator. This measure is to be highly praised. It proved its worth when what were termed unreliable entrants failed to pass the required test and when one new plane built for the race was condemned.

A more rigid test, however, should be made in the plants where new types of airplanes are built. A strict inspection should be made by the government Department of Commerce as to the right material and equipment and when the ship is completed it should be thoroughly gone over again and subjected to flying tests before leaving its load test. The latter two tests should be made by the designer or a test pilot or both.

came a streak of red, white and blue. "The Miss Doran, the Miss Doran," yelled the crowd. "She's coming back."

It was true. The biplane came in low and fast. Despite its great load, with its gasoline tank and occupants, Pedlar brought it down perfectly. Gasoline was spouting from its engine.

"Motor trouble," snapped he of the straw kelly. "Let's get busy."

It was 12:46 p.m. when the biplane came back to the field and at 2:03 p.m. it was in the air again, Honolulu bound.

Then, almost abreast, the Dallas Spirit and the Oklahoma, came tearing down to the field.

The green fuselage of the Dallas Spirit was flapping in ribbons on one side. It looked as if it had been sideswiped by the wing of another plane. The wings had torn it apart. He insisted he would start again as soon as the damage could be repaired. His navigator was equally as insistent.

IRVING CRASHES
Griffin and Henley came back with motor trouble.

Hence, with the Oklahoma first to go back on the field, the El Encanto followed. Irving still on the ground, the Golden Eagle, fourth starter, had a clear headway in first place, with Goebel in the Woolaroo and Jensen in the Aloha in its wake.

By this time Irving was refused. The spirit of the race was in the top of the runway, his motor roared and he was away, down the path.

Luck was against him, not to be trusted. He got into the air. Thousands of pedestrians and hundreds of automobiles leaving the field, stopped to watch him. He rose. The Erwin, daunted spirit of the lone flyer seized the crowd. Again and again

MISS DORAN UNWORRIED OVER DASH

Natily-Aired Teacher Displays Pluck as Plane Starts Second Time

MUNICIPAL AIRPORT (Oakland) Aug. 16. (AP)—Miss Mildred Doran, 22-year-old Michigan school-teacher, who expects to be the first girl to make an ocean flight, was seen in a uniform when she arrived at the field. Tan golf socks and tan and brown shoes completed her attire.

"I am not a bit worried over the flight," Miss Doran said, "although I suppose I should be."

A pile of telegrams rested on her lap from friends all over the country. She displayed her pluck when she went into the air a second time after her plane had been forced to return after its first start because of motor trouble.

Alan Dwan Wed to Betty Shelton

MALONE (N. Y.) Aug. 16. (AP)—Alan Dwan, motion-picture director, and Miss Betty Marie Shelton, motion-picture scenario writer, were married at the Methodist parsonage here today. The minister's wife and daughter were the only witnesses to the ceremony.

Mr. Dwan and Miss Shelton came here yesterday from Canada, seeking a marriage license. Each had been released from a previous marriage by divorce. Miss Shelton had her divorce with her, but the town clerk refused to issue a license until Mr. Dwan could produce proof of his divorce, which he said had been granted in Reno.

Mr. Dwan communicated with his attorney in New York and a certified copy of the Dwan decree arrived today. After the ceremony the couple motored to Alexandria Bay.

Redoubled in Boston Area; Full Bench of Massachusetts Court Hears Appeal

The following developments today in the Sacco-Vanzetti case:
The full bench of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, consisting of Chief Justice Sutherland and Justices Cushing, Loring, and others, heard the appeal today. The case was argued by the defense attorneys, who claimed that the trial was unfair and that the jury was biased. The prosecution attorneys argued that the evidence was sufficient to convict the defendants. The court is expected to render its decision in a few days.

GUARDS REINFORCED

The bombing stirred government secret service agents and State constabulary to a widespread round-up of radicals and suspicious persons, while police were hurried to guard the homes of public officials identified with the Sacco case.

ARGUE ALL DAY

When the hearing adjourned at 3 o'clock the four justices took the case under advisement. Immediately Mr. Hill presented another writ of error, claiming that the trial was unfair and that the jury was biased. The court is expected to render its decision in a few days.

WILL VISIT PRISON

Another caller, A. E. Hill, who attended the Alford trial, said he would visit the prison and see the defendants. He said he was a friend of the defendants and wanted to see them before they were executed.

RECEIVED

The following letter was received from the defense attorneys today: "We are very sorry to hear of the death of Mr. Hill. He was a very kind and generous man. We hope that his death will not affect the outcome of the trial."

NOTE the snug waist line, the full skirts on both the dresses in the picture.

The smocking over the shoulder on the larger figure is very smart as is the velvet bow on the smaller. These are examples of the many advance fashions to be had in these little street and business dresses featured tomorrow.

SIX STRAIGHT FOR NEW YORK

Hornaby's Homer With Pair on Ruins of Pirates

Cardinals Nose Out Braves in Eleventh, 5-3

Phillies Take Opener from Cincinnati Reds

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Coming from the rear in gallant fashion, the New York Giants fell on Aldridge in the closing innings today to pound out an 8-to-4 win over Pittsburgh. The victory gave the Giants their sixth straight win and ran the total of conquests to fifteen in the last sixteen games. Rogers Hornaby turned the tide in the seventh inning when he drove a ball into the pavilion for his twentieth homer of the season with Reese and Lindstrom on base. The Giants piled up fourteen blows of Aldridge in eight innings and the crack Pirate right-hander withdrew after Lindstrom cracked his fourth straight single of the game in the eighth.

Virgil Barnes weakened in the ninth and fifth innings when the Pirates scored runs to gain the lead but Dutch Henry turned in a fine relief performance in the final three innings. The score:

Yours Truly

By Ty Cobb

Dear Ty: The other night in one of the hotels we got up an argument as to the best things ever done in baseball. I mean, of course, new rules and regulations that have been put in the last few years.

We talked about scoring, pitching and all that sort of thing. You know how a gang sits around and talks.

Well, I've come to the conclusion that about the best thing that ever happened for the game was this system of allowing prize money for the second, third and fourth teams, according to where they finish. This always comes up at this time of year because every club has a chance for the outside finishing in the first division has made them fight all the harder.

INDIANS DROP BARGAIN BILL

Mackmen Defeat Tribe by 6-3 and 8-0 Scores

Tigers Win Sixth in Row; Down Red Sox, 10-7

Hofmann and Neun Injured in Plate Collision

CLEVELAND (O.), Aug. 16. (AP)—Philadelphia opened its western trip by taking two games from Cleveland here today, 6 and 3 and 8 and 0. Miller's ineffective pitching in the sixth inning caused the Indians' defeat in the first game. Hale hitting for three bases with the sacks filled. Ehmke was a mystery except in the third inning when he lost control.

Poor infield support behind Buckeye in the second game gave Philadelphia three runs in the third inning. The score:

thority from Col. Matt J. Winn, general manager of the track, giving Dempsey full control of the course. Dempsey will not pay a cent for use of the racing plant, as it has been turned over to him gratis.

The former champion will have quite a bulge on Tunney in the public interest, inasmuch as he will be on the job and in training almost two weeks before the champion will leave his camp at Speculator, N. Y.

Beyond the estimate that Monday's business amounted to a record breaking one-day total of $200,000 in ticket orders, Rickard said he had no idea of the total amount in hand, although it has long since passed the $1,000,000 mark and is moving steadily toward an amount just double that sum.

SIX IN ROW

DETROIT, Aug. 16. (AP)—Detroit continued its winning streak by defeating Boston, 10 to 7, in the opening game of the series today. It was the sixth successive triumph for the Tigers.

Fred Hofmann, Red Sox catcher, was carried from the field unconscious in the sixth inning after he was knocked down in a collision at the plate with Johnny Neun. It was afterward found that Hofmann was injured on the play but remained in the line-up until the eighth when he gave way to pinch hitter.

Successive home runs by Gehring and Heilmann in the fifth inning put the Tigers back in the running against the Red Sox and built up a six-run lead. The score:

Larry Nabholz, Sharon (Pa.) professional, required 77 although he shot the short seventh hole in one.

JONES GETS CRACK AT TITLE

"Admiral" Battles Stecher Tonight

Joe Stecher

ATL JONES, the well-known Texas tornado, has a chance to blow himself into the world's heavyweight championship belt tonight. He meets Joe Stecher, titleholder in the stellar attraction of "Carnation" Lou Daro's all-star wrestling show at the Olympic.

The battle will be a finish affair, insuring the fans of a furious match from the first gong until one of the grapplers' shoulders hit the mat for the second time, provided each has scored a fall at the end of two hours. If only one fall is made in two hours, the maker will be declared the winner. If neither gets a fall in that time, the star heavyweights will wrestle until one is registered.

Although Stecher is being given the edge to retain his title, Jones has plenty of supporters in this neck of the woods who are placing him at even money with the champion. This is due to a great extent to the Texan's sensational victory over John Peak, famed "Nebraska Tigerman," here two weeks ago. Peak was the favorite because he pinned Stecher's shoulders to the mat twice last year, and Peak lost two falls in less than an hour.

That Stecher considers Jones a very tough young gentleman is shown by the fact that he put in a harder week of training at Long Beach than he has for any of his matches here for some time. The champion expects to have a lot of trouble with Jones, and the Texan, who is in as good shape now as he was when he met Peak, will not disappoint Stecher. As a matter of fact, Jones may get the titleholder as much trouble as he gave Peak, which would be very aggravating to both Joe and brother-manager Antonio.

The hold which is expected to bring relief from the champion is the new toe hold Jones has been working on during the past week. The toe, in this hold, is merely used as a grip to pull back the foot after the ankle has been braced against Jones's knee or foot. The Texan can impart more misery and pain with that hold than most wrestlers can get with any half-dozen standard foot-holding grips.

The object of the hold, Jones explained, is to weaken Stecher's ankles to such an extent he will not be able to get any kind of leverage with his body. Stecher depends almost entirely upon his ankle to get leverage and keeping the scissors closed. With his ankles braced, his scissors will be very ineffective, his speed will be slackened, and his crown will be about as secure as a big stick candy in a small boy's hand.

Jim London and Dick Davis, two rough and tough bone-crushers, now in the semi-wildcat, Davis' court is also a master at roughing it, and none of the big fellows has been able to cure him of the habit. Alex Abegg, the young, bald-headed Russian, and Renato Gardini, the big Italian, will open the night.

The Jack Dempsey-Jack Sharkey fight pictures will be shown following the main event.

above her score in the round robin, while Miss Dunn got an 88 and after halving the nineteenth when Mrs. Hadfield was stymied when as the second extra with perfect five when the Milwaukeean missed a two-foot putt and took 6.

Miss Van Wile came closer to her first day's score by scoring one above par for the fourteen holes she had to play to defeat 5 and 4. Mrs. Perry Fiske of the Kaib, Ill., the only former champion to lose thus far.

The best golf of the day was played by Mrs. Lee Mida of Chicago, who scored par 81 in defeating Mrs. Edna Macwood, her townswoman, 3 and 1. This score was compiled despite seven strokes of which Mrs. Mida had four, all nonplayable.

Another former champion, Mrs. Dave Galt of Memphis, met a Tarter in Jane Cannon of Milwaukee, but by scoring a well-balanced 43-45, won by 2 up.

EX-CHAMP WINS

Mrs. Miriam Burns Horn of Kansas City, another former titleholder, ousted the only Iowa, Elizabeth Curtis of Clinton, 6 and 5, while Mrs. Melvin Jones of Chicago, also member of the "former" tribe, by scoring 36, three under par, on the second nine for an 82, conquered Mrs. G. E. Cleopas of Beloit, Wis., 2 and 1.

Virginia Wilson of Chicago, who reached the semifinals in the previous tournament this year, won easily from Mrs. Jack Blacklake of Kenosha, 3 and 2.

Mrs. Jones tomorrow will face Mrs. J. W. Taylor of Chicago, who kept close to par to eliminate the only qualifier, Mrs. Curtis Soli of Columbus, 2 and 1. Miss Dunn is paired with Bernice Wall of Oklahoma, who met the worst golf of the day in Jane Cannon of Milwaukee, but by scoring a well-balanced 43-45, won by 2 up.

The New Orleans star, Miss Turpie, has to play Mrs. Stecher, Hanley of Detroit, who scored par 40 on the out nine and defeated Elsie Hilding of Grand Rapids, by the largest margin of the day, 6 and 5.

Miss Van Wile plays Mrs. Pressler, Mrs. Mida meets Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Horn faces Mrs. Righe of Detroit, who defeated Mercedes Busch of Chicago, baby of the tournament, 3 and 2. Mrs. Galt will compete with Josephine Moore of Chicago, who ousted the only Minnesota player, Gertrude Boothby, Rochester, 2 and 1.

tournaments with his golf as well as with his golf apparel, is the real champion of 1927, even though he did not win the United States or British open titles. Can you name any other amateur or pro who has won as many near-major golf championships as this 26-year-old skater? The Metropolitan, Shawnee, Massachusetts, Eastern and Pennsylvania open titles, all won by Farrell, are high-class events, and in them he defeated fields nearly as fine as the ones that competed in the United States open at Oakland, and his marvelous score of 89 at Shawnee put him in a class with the best shot-makers in the world.

BOASTS GOOD RECORD

This Al Walker person, whom Promoter Carlo Curtis has imported to perform in the feature spot at the Main-street Athletic Club Saturday night, promises to be considerable of a sensation. He claims to have traded punches with Johnny Dundee, Kid Kaplan, Eddie Shea and Johnny Ford at one time or another, which is considerable accomplishment. Walker is to take on Betting Bill for eight rounds, and the popular Southern California leather pusher is expected to encounter considerable difficulty. Jack Hanlon and Billy VanEller have been selected for the semifinal, with Nash Calderon and Jack Stevens in the special.

PINKSTON WILL TRY FOR COMEBACK SOON

The comeback attempt of Clarence Pinkston, 1920 Olympic diving champion, will be one of the features of the outdoor national swimming championships at Honolulu the 24th, 25th and 26th inst.

Pinkston will swim for the Hollywood Athletic Club and with Pete Des Jardins of Miami will be favored to win the springboard diving. Pinkston, his coach, Clyde Swendsen, and Mrs. Swendsen left for the islands Saturday.

OLNEY BEATEN BY MAYNARD LASWELL

Fred Olney was the first victim of Maynard Laswell in the round-robin tournament being held at the Los Angeles Athletic Club to pick opponents for George Melman, single and double champion of 1927, when he invades Los Angeles next month. Laswell's victory of yesterday put him in a tie for top place with Bill Hanft and Lute Crockett.

The former champion was forced to go three games to win his match from Olney. He won the first game, 21-19, lost the second, 15-21, and copped the deciding tilt, 21-12.

Maecall Clips Par to Cop Medal in Los Angeles Club Golf Event

Oakland Wins Over Mission

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16.—(AP)—Oakland defeated the Mission 4 and 3 today, after Maecall had checked a drive that had been the first in the second round of the Los Angeles Club Golf event.

The Los Angeles Athletic Club will be represented in the rough water swimming meet to be held at Hermosa Beach Sunday by four swimmers, according to Fred Cady, swimming coach of the Mercury club.

Cady announced that he had entered George Leach, Oscar Simmons and Colin Smith in the 800-yard free-style event, and Tom Blake in the surf-board competition.

George Thomas, one of the most noted golf course architects in the country, came within an ace of making his first competitive appearance in more than a year. Mr. Thomas, who designed both Beverly courses, played for the first time in twelve months Monday and equaled par over the south course of his home club.

Mascall's stroking yesterday was imbued with a tee and greens confidence not shared by other representative golfers in the second day held of nearly 350 entrants, qualifying in what has come to be known as the banner interclub competition of the season. The Culver City exponent clipped the stiff north course par by one shot—the only player out of a group of 350 contestants to even make the "perfect" figures—of one of the most historic layouts in the West.

ANGELENOS IN TORONTO

Bert Rovers and John Blewett, Southland swim stars, who are training for the big Toronto swimming race, sent word here yesterday that the water was exceptionally cold in that part of the country and they believed that most of the field will be forced to quit before the race is half over. Rovers stated in his letter that the water is about 46 deg. and that the chances of swimmers to win who come from warm climates were few and far between. The water, according to the Southland swimmers, is very tricky. It comes in streaks from luke warm to ice cold and it is playing havoc with many of the merman training for the big prize. Rovers and Blewett have been plunging along trying to get acclimated to the conditions before the contest starts.

Low scores yesterday, with pairings and starting times for first-round matches today, are as follows:

REMATCHES FEATURE
CULVER CITY SHOW

Jimmy Murray has scored at Culver City again this week with a program of five six-round fights tomorrow night that promises all the action that can be crowded into one evening and let his patrons get home without nervous prostration.

Two of his battles are rematches that bear every mark of sensational fights. One of them will show Young Joe Rivers and Manuel Martinez, who staged a spectacular mill last week with Rivers taking the verdict.

The other rematch will show Battling Manning and Harry (Bubber) Johnson, meeting for the fourth time.

Sandy Garrison and Ralston DeWeese are down for a six-rounder, Evans Fortune and Billy McCowan are in another and the show will be opened by Ray McIntyre and Ray Soles.

Chicago, Team Without a Star, is Sensation of National League

MERMAID SETS RECORD

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 16. (AP)—Agnes Geraghty, representing the New York Women's Swimming Association, entered as a special entry in the 100-meter breast stroke for women, broke the world's record in the 100 yards at the Indiana-Kentucky A.A.U. swimming championships here tonight. Her time was 1:28.4. Miss Geraghty was timed at 100 yards, but she finished at the 100 meters, winning handsomely. She broke her own record of 1:27.2 made in 1925.

Raymond Ruddy, swimming under the colors of the New York A.C., won the national junior championship in the 500-yard free-style event. His time was 12:11.4. Frank Kennedy, Indianapolis A.C., was a close second.

NATIONALISTA MEETS BROWN

Making his first appearance in the harbor section in many months, Young Nationalista, Filipino windmill, will go to the post tonight at the Wilmington Bowl a favorite to defeat Nick Brown in the ten-round main event.

Nationalista, since entering the feather division, has been turning in surprising showings. His recent three-round kayo over George Rivera was one of the greatest upsets in the local featherweight ranks.

Brown has never appeared at Wilmington. In his only three California fights he made a very good impression. His best fight was against Irish Mickey Cone at Hollywood.

Middleweights hold down the six-round Wilmington semifinal. They are Pat Yango and Chick Roach. Both are sluggers with Roach the stiffest puncher of the pair. Andy Mitchell meets Sailor Farr in a heavy-weight bout of six rounds, while the four-rounders show Wallace Dugan against Pepper Echeverria and Mickey Oroco battling Jimmy Pierce.

York team followed Miss Norellus in the 400-meter event. Lisa Lindstrom was second; Ethel McCarthy, third and Eleanor Holm, fourth.

STAR PLAYERS HAMPER TEAM

BY GEORGE MORIARTY

Here is an illustration of how a star player, protecting his own average, can work to the detriment of the team and often does:

He comes to the plate with a man on first or second base. He hands out the hit-and-run sign. The runner starts with the pitcher but the pitcher hands the batter the kind of ball he doesn't like. Instead of the spectators severely criticizing the runner, the batter ignores the ball and protects himself.

The runner is thrown out going after the ball and protects himself from trying to steal in that particular situation. The spectators have no way of knowing that the runner was forced to make the attempt by the batter's signs. The attempt to steal seems ridiculous with the score close and a hard-hitter at bat.

Von Elm and Jim Johnston Worry Jones

MINNEAPOLIS, Aug. 16. (AP)—

George Von Elm, the champion, and Harrison (Jimmy) Johnston of Minneapolis are seen by Bobby Jones as the outstanding obstacles in his quest for the national amateur golf title this year.

Arriving here today with two golfing proteges Watts Gunn and Gene Cook, the British open champion and twice holder of the American amateur title saw a mighty hard row ahead of him in the national amateur tournament at Minkabha here next week.

Jones considers himself "badly off his game," and insists he has not been "on" his game for more than a year, not excepting the recent British open, when he laid his success largely to "lucky putts."

PANAMA BOXER DROPS VERDICT

through," the little Panamanian rallied, slipped away from the hemp and cut loose against Sangor. It was a magnificent effort, but Zorrilla's punches lacked steam and in a few seconds Joey had him back on the ropes again. This time Zorrilla wasn't exactly a statue as he stood there, for he tried to weave and bob, but Sangor was becoming used to the elusive target and Santiago took plenty while the flurry lasted. Ring-side spectators began to cheer as blood flying right and left from Zorrilla's nose.

After that amazing fifth round the boys slowed down. Sangor coasting, while the same little colored boy seemed content to let the pace slacken. Joey, while taking it easier, began to employ his left hook to the midsection and these blows took a lot of pep out of Zorrilla.

Sangor opened up again in the eighth and ninth with his head attack, pounding his foe vigorously. Zorrilla always made it interesting but his blows couldn't slow Joey up.

The semi-wind-up was almost as fast as the main event, with Pedro Amador, a brother Panamanian of Zorrilla, smothering Joe Guerrero under a flood of punches. Amador was busier than a one-armed paper-hanger trying to do his stuff in a stiff breeze, rushing into Joe and smothering him with wallops every time "The Smack Boy" tried to take the play away.

Charley Sullivan, a spindly-shanked youngster with a stout heart and a lightning left, was miles too fast for Tommy Milton, one of Sangor's stablemates. Sullivan gave the eastern bantam an artistic lesson and made himself immensely popular with his clean punching. Milton was handicapped by a short reach and hardly ever beat his foe to the punch, a disconcerting matter if ever there was such. Tommy went to his knees in the third from a left hook.

Joe Rizzo and Tom Moore clashed in the second bout of the evening and the official result was a draw, although we thought the latter had an edge. The bout was apparently a huge joke to both boys, who tried to see who could produce the most engaging smile. Rizzo was miles ahead on grins, but Moore did the better punching.

Jack Stephens dropped the opener to Art Molina. Both boys were on their respective bicycles most of the time with Jack the more polished pedaler.

Fidel La Barba and Johnny Vacca, who fight next week, were introduced, as was Danny Kramer, the game little old man, who wants to meet any featherweight in these parts.

The house was virtually a sell-out.

HARD STRUGGLE FOR TOP PLACE

Pirates, Cards, Giants Battle for Leadership

Genius of McCarthy Enables Bruins to Lead

Victory Would Prove Value of Team Organization

BY GEORGE MORIARTY

Manager of the Detroit baseball team, former Major League star and for two years in American League uniform, McCarthy, in all countries by North America (Newspaper Alliance).

Chicago, a team without an outstanding star, has been the surprise of the tightest race the National League has known in a number of seasons. There have been flashes of a close order, but I recall few years when three clubs struggled for months the way Chicago, Pittsburgh and St. Louis have in the National League this season.

No one expected the Cubs to produce the fight they have shown since the opening of the season. They were considered a fairly good team with a chance of landing in the first division, but not of remaining in the thick of the fight all through the schedule.

At various times attempts have been made to explain the 1927 showing of the Cubs, but I do not believe anyone has yet advanced what to my mind is the real cause of their success.

The Cubs are up there for the very reason that makes people wonder how they can be one-two-three. Their success is due to the fact that there are no outstanding stars in the lineup.

STARS A HANDICAP

Star ball players do not always make for winning teams. Too many stars shape their play to help their individual records rather than to help the team. Many stars do things pretty much their own way. Being stars they care to take orders from the manager, in fact they think they know more about it than he does. As a rule, stars are more of a handicap than a help.

Joe McCarthy, manager of the Cubs, is a man who never played in the major leagues. He was a second baseman for Louisville in the American Association. He knew baseball and he knew human nature.

When he became manager of the Cubs, he arrived with plenty of ideas and a definite purpose. He got rid of the stars. He organized a team which lacked individual luster, but was made up of men who would listen to McCarthy and do his bidding.

Having gathered material that he could mold, McCarthy proceeded to mold. He began working psychology. He kept telling his players they were good, much better than they thought they were. He finally convinced them they were much better than they are. He got them playing above their speed and he has kept it up, driving them, cajoling them, figuratively leading and petting.

OBEY MANAGER

Having no outstanding stars the Cubs pull together. They accept McCarthy's instructions. They work. Chicago has ability, but all season long it has paraded ahead of teams with more ability than Chicago has. As a team the Cubs rank rather low in batting, their average keeping them in the second division of team hitting.

Their pitching staff is rated as one of the best in baseball. Among its members are Root, Jones, Cohn, Bush and Blake, but they are not listed among the star pitchers of the league. What makes their pitching count is good fielding behind them.

Fielding is one department of baseball play where teamwork is of paramount importance. McCarthy has taught his players that killing runs is just as important as making them. If the Cubs should win the pennant this season, and stranger things than that have happened, their victory will furnish the greatest proof of the value of team play yet delivered. They will win not because they have individual stars, but because they lack them.

TO PLAY TWIN BILL AT WHITE SOX PARK

A double-header between Fullen's Colored Giants and the White Sox will be played Sunday at the White Sox Park. Both clubs are rated among the strongest in Southern California and a speedy battle is expected. Either Red Phalen, Henderson or Deardorff will be on the mound for the White Sox with Stephens and Hahn receiving.

ADAMS TO AID
RIVER PARLEYColorado Governor Offers
His Good OfficesCalifornia-Arizona Meeting
Will be WatchedSix State Leaders Prepare for Conferences

DENVER, Aug. 16. (P)—The good offices of Colorado's Governor will be tendered Arizona and California when representatives of the two States meet here late this week in an effort to iron out differences existing for almost two years over development of the Colorado River.

At Gov. Adams' office today it was said that he, as a representative of the four upper-basin States, will be glad to contribute what he can toward an equitable settlement of the river problem at the preliminary conference proceeding by three days a general conference of the seven States drained by the stream.

Official acceptance by Nevada of the four upper-basin States' invitation to a seven-State Colorado River conference late today assured full attendance at the meeting.

Gov. Baker of Nevada apprised Gov. Adams that he will attend "if possible," assuring him that Nevada's river commission will be on hand to treat with the other six States drained by the river regarding development work for flood-control, irrigation, domestic water and electric power generated by a dam.

California and Arizona already have accepted the invitation. A preliminary conference between California and Arizona representatives is expected to open Thursday or Friday with efforts directed at the settlement of a dispute over water allocation and power royalties.

WINE GROWN
IN PUMPKINSSugar Placed in Tapped
Vegetable Results in Potent Drink

EVANSVILLE (Ind.) Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Felix Farrow, mail superintendent in the Evansville postoffice, brings a new one from Petersburg, in the heart of bone-dry Indiana. Up there the farmers, the backbone of prohibition, tap a growing pumpkin, drop in some sugar, replace the plug and let nature take its course. Soon pumpkin wine is born.

Expected to open Thursday or Friday with efforts directed at the settlement of a dispute over water allocation and power royalties.

IMPERIAL GROUP
GOING TO CONFERENCE

EL CENTRO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Headed by Earl C. Pound, president of the Imperial Irrigation District, a group of valley representatives plans to leave here tomorrow for Denver to attend a series of Colorado River conferences prior to the seven-State meeting of the Governors.

Included in the local party are Mark Rose and W. M. Blair, directors of the district; F. H. McIver, secretary; Charles Childers, attorney; and M. J. Dowd, engineer.

Pound expressed confidence that as a result of recent meetings and conferences arranged during the next thirty days a final agreement regarding the division of the waters of the Colorado River will be reached by the seven States involved.

GUNMEN FACING
MENTAL TESTSChicago Orders Round-up of Gang KillersTreatment as Defectives
Planned by ChiefPsychopathic Stigma Aimed to Curb Warfare

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—Gunmen and gangsters, tough eggs who have sought one another with anything from assault and battery to murder in their hearts—full fledged hoodlums who have tossed their bullets around like hailstones—all these may meet up one of these days in one place.

Chief of Detectives William J. O'Connor tonight instructed his men to pick up all known gang leaders, gunmen and killers on sight. As fast as they are brought in the chief will send them to Dr. William J. Hickson, director of the city psychopathic laboratory.

Chief O'Connor is confident that Dr. Hickson will find the hard-boiled gentry are mentally defective and he will bundle them over to the county court to have them sent to the County Psychopathic Hospital for nine days' observation.

"It is the one way to keep known and cold-blooded killers off the streets and to put upon them a stigma they will fear," said the detective chief. "And there is nothing funny about it. I am firmly convinced that men who will murder in cold blood, take other utterly defenseless men for a ride, who will torture victims to make them tell things they want to know—

GRIM COWBOYS
GUARD HORSESSix Shooters Loaded After Poisoning of Seven Hounds
in Chicago Stadium

CHICAGO, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—With "six shooters" loaded, a dozen cowboys who shoot from the hip tonight stood guard over 1000 head of mustangs, bronchos and steers corralled under the Grant Park Stadium to prevent further operations of an antirodeo fanatic who is believed to have poisoned seven horses, three of them prize winners, early this morning.

Arriving from Chukwater, Wyo., Sunday in a special train of palace cars, the horses and cattle were turned loose in the stadium arena to lumber up after their thirty-hour trip. This morning cowboy attendants found seven horses dead on the field.

I am firmly convinced such men are not mentally right."

The chief indicated that a number of well-known hoodlums have his new scheme to fear.

Among those who have frequently been arrested with guns in their pockets are such as George "Bugs" Moran, "Big Joe" Salts, "Light" Oberst, the O'Donnell Brothers and Louis Alterie, Dean O'Banion's old right hand bower, who has just come back from his Colorado ranch.

Only rarely have the gangsters been convicted when they were arrested. Usually they have walked out of the courts free to go gunning again.

ICE CREAM WILL BE MADE RICHERNew State Law Effective on January 1Amount of Food Solids and Fats to Be SpecifiedManufacturers Already in Betterment Move

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 16. (P)—Here's good news for the ice-cream eaters of California, who last year consumed 12,097,126 gallons of commercially manufactured delicacy. In the future the supply, already recognized as being of high quality, will be improved through administration of new provisions written into the State's general dairy laws by the last Legislature.

Net weight standards for ice-cream manufacture, which are expected to be put into full effect about January 1, now are being drawn up by the bureau of dairy control of the State Department of Agriculture. The standards will specify the percentage of food solids that must be put into a gallon of cream, and also will specify the amount of fats that must be contained in the solids, and what percentage of the solids will be permitted to be made up of non-fats.

Dr. J. J. Frey, chief of the bureau, today reported that the moral effect of the enactments already noticeable to his department is a tendency by manufacturers to improve their supply.

CHURCHMEN
USURP RIGHT,
SAY WOMENMale Delegates Doing All
Talking at Lausanne Meet
Over Feminine Members

LAUSANNE (Switzerland) Aug. 16. (P)—For the first time since the opening of the World Conference on Faith and Order the voice of the seven women delegates, of whom four are Americans, was heard today when they presented a signed appeal for greater recognition of the members of their sex in the councils of the churches.

Believing that scant attention has been received from the more than 400 male delegates, who have not given one of them a chance to speak, the women met in private and drew up their statement.

Addressing her sisters, one of the feminine delegates asserted in forceful terms that whereas more women than men went to church and that the women did most of the work in the churches, the men occupied all the places on the boards.

The four women delegates from the United States are Miss Margaret Slatery of Boston, Mrs. Albert J. Lyman of Brooklyn, Prof. Eliza H. Kendrick of Wellesley, Mass., and Mrs. Wesley Boyd of Shenandoah, Pa.

Capistrano Beach

Cottage Sites

Each With Its Own

Private Beach Front

Midway between Los Angeles and San Diego, and two hours' motoring distance from both cities, the new Capistrano Beach Cottage Colony is being developed and construction work rushed on improvements.

Three miles of sandy beach, with shoal water ideal for swimming, was recently purchased by a group of Southern California capitalists for this development.

A portion of the frontage is given over to a handsome commodious Community Center Beach Clubhouse for the use and benefit of cottage site owners and their guests. This will be equipped with a large open-air swimming pool, shower baths and locker rooms for men and women.

The Clubhouse will have a spacious sun-terrace facing the ocean, sheltered patios, dining room and cafe, a large ballroom, lounge rooms and other club features.

Every cottage site will be served with pure domestic water and electricity for power and light.

Private Ocean Frontage at a Premium

Cottage sites within a two-hour motoring radius of down-town Los Angeles, which control private beach frontage, are hard to find, excepting at very high prices—usually from $5000 to $15,000 a lot. No more beach frontage can be created, but population is growing rapidly and steadily.

Desirable private beach frontage is the safest and most profitable type of investment today for that reason.

Pre-opening prices at Capistrano Beach are only $2250 for a 30-foot lot with ocean frontage. Lots run back from the water line 100 to 220 feet. Easy terms of payment.

NET PROFITS OF SHELL OIL OFF

Six Months' Income Shows 54 Per Cent Decline

Earnings for Period Equal to 72 Cents on Common

Company's Surplus at End of Period Lower

Reflecting further the unsettled condition of the oil industry, last earnings of the Shell Oil Corporation and subsidiary companies for the six months ended June 30, last, after all charges including depletion, depreciation, and drilling expenses, but before Federal income taxes, amounted to $7,589,417.70, as compared with $13,725,514.80 for the first half of 1926, a decrease of $6,136,097.10, or approximately 54 per cent, according to the company's semiannual report issued late yesterday.

This is equivalent, after preferred dividends, to 72 cents a share on the 10,000,000 shares of common stock outstanding, as against $1.07 a share on the same capitalization in the first six months of last year. Dividend requirements for the half year were 70 cents a share on the common stock.

SECOND QUARTER POOR

Net profits of the corporation and subsidiaries, after similar charges, in the second quarter of this year amounted to $2,305,162.64, equivalent after preferred dividends to 23 cents a share on the common, as against quarterly dividend requirements of 38 cents a share. This compares with net profits of $5,293,255.06 in the first quarter of this year and $11,744,465.19 in the second quarter of 1926. The company's report reveals a greater write-off for depreciation, depletion and drilling expenses in the quarter just passed than in the first quarter of this year or in the second quarter of 1926. This charge-off amounted to $6,359,592.74 in the first three months ended June 30, last, as against $7,520,170.26 in the first quarter, and $7,211,261.19 in the second quarter last year.

Gross income of the company and subsidiaries, including a half interest in the income of Comar Oil Company, for the six months of this year amounted to $22,469,467.73, as compared with $20,614,668.12 in the first half of 1926, a decrease of more than $1,854,800. Gross income in the second quarter amounted to $10,669,022.38, as against $19,055,776.38 in the second period of 1926.

SURPLUS DROPS

Surplus decreased from $36,817,445.20 on March 31, last, to $35,492,553.04 as of June 30, last. Dividends aggregating $3,831,033.80 were paid in the second quarter, $3,500,000 in the first quarter.

SURVEY FOR NEW TICKER SERVICE ON

Financial News Bureau of New York Planning to Enter Coast Field

Introduction into Los Angeles and San Francisco of the financial news ticker service is a probability, it was indicated yesterday by W. R. Williams, city superintendent of the Western Union. The New York News Bureau Association, operating a financial news agency in New York and as far west as Chicago, has asked the Western Union to obtain a list of the prospects for such a service, and prepared to establish bureaus in the two cities if sufficient subscribers are signed.

The quota assigned to Los Angeles in this subscribers to a half interest in the income of Comar Oil Company, for the six months of this year amounted to $22,469,467.73, as compared with $20,614,668.12 in the first half of 1926, a decrease of more than $1,854,800. Gross income in the second quarter amounted to $10,669,022.38, as against $19,055,776.38 in the second period of 1926.

Capital Increase Voted by Utility

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 16. (AP)—Stockholders of California-Oregon Power Company voted yesterday to increase the authorized capital stock from $15,000,000, divided into 75,000 shares of preferred stock and an equal amount of common stock, with $100 par value, to $30,000,000, divided into 150,000 shares of common and 150,000 shares of preferred stock. The par value will remain the same.

London Daily Radio

LONDON, Aug. 16. (By wireless)—Interest here today was centered chiefly in oil shares, which opened dull, went strong for a while and then became dull again about noon. Rubbers moved in an uncertain manner all morning, with more confidence exhibited in rubber commodities than in the shares. However, rubber reacted sentimentally yesterday on the American report of a decline in monthly consumption.

NATIONAL SURETY DECLARES DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Directors of the National Surety Company, which last month increased its capital stock from $10,000,000 to $16,000,000, declared a quarterly dividend of 2 1/2 per cent. Payable October 1 to holders of record September 16, the same rate as under the lower capitalization. All of the $7,800,000 stock has been paid in. $2,500,000 having been added to surplus.

EXTRA FOR MORGENTHAU

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Morganthau Linotype declared an extra of 25 cents with the regular quarterly of $1.25, same as in the preceding quarter. Both are payable September 30 to holders of record September 8.

MOTOR INCOME DROPS

NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (AP)—Paige Detroit Motor Car Company reports net loss of $1,426,463 for the first half of 1927, in contrast to net income of $1,236,798 in the first half of 1926. The second quarter's net loss was $1,240,803.

BRANCH EXPANSION SEEN

California Superintendent Predicts Rise of State-wide Systems Outside of Federal Reserve

Rise of new State-wide banking systems in California, where most of the changes in banking methods originate, is prophesied by Will C. Wood, Superintendent of Banks. In addressing the recent convention of the State Bank Superintendents in Richmond, Va., Mr. Wood asserted that branch-banking expansion in California will continue in spite of the McPadden Act, using the argument of the superior protection afforded by the California banking laws as the appeal to the public.

BANCITALY AND EDISON IN ADVANCE

California Petroleum and Pan American Western Up; Richfield Off

Bancitaly Corporation was given additional support yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and the stock advanced 5-8 of a point to a high of 90 3/4, and closed fractionally higher at 91 1/4. Edison closed at 190, after touching 191 in the early trading. First National rights declined to 19 1/2 and closed 1 1/2 points net lower at 20. First National certificates held at 437 1/2.

Los Angeles Investment was active and advanced 4 1/2 cents to 27 3/4, where it closed. Edison common added 1-4 point to 36, and the preferred issues were firm. Los Angeles Gas and Electric preferred was steady at 108.

California Petroleum added 1-4 to 23 3/4, while Standard Oil of California added 1-2 point to 58 1/4. Union Oil was firm at 43 1/2, and associates at 43 1/2. Richfield closed off 1-4 point to 34. Pan American common added 1-4 point to 41 1/2. Gold Dust added a cent to 5. Idaho Metals lost another cent to 1.37.

Daily Average Oil Production in Week Lower

TULSA (Okla.), Aug. 16. (AP)—Daily average crude oil production in the United States underwent a decrease of 10,381 barrels during the week ending the 13th inst., as compared with the week ending the 6th inst. The Oil and Gas Journal says today. Production was given as 2,568,334 barrels, compared with 2,578,715 barrels the previous week.

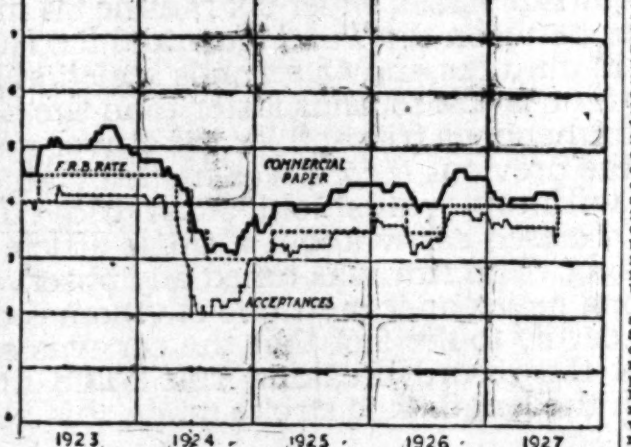

That production is having effect in the Greater Brimley area, despite difficulties in bringing it down to 450,000 barrels daily, as agreed upon, is shown in the fact that the daily production of the area declined 16,382 barrels during the week, the report says. The daily average production of the entire State, however, declined 18,395 barrels.

Although West Texas reported a slight increase in production, other Texas areas declined as did production in Kansas. California registered a slight increase while production in Arkansas and Louisiana held about on an even keel.

Call Issued for Midcontinent Trust Meeting

Under the auspices of the national bank and trust company divisions of the American Bankers' Association, the third midcontinent trust conference will be held in the Twin Cities, Minneapolis and St. Paul, September 1 to 3, inclusive. It was announced yesterday in a joint call to conference members issued by Mr. A. Gray, president of the A.B.A. C. W. Carey, president of the national bank division, and Edward J. Fox, president of the trust company division.

Reserve Rate Move Is True to Form

From the above chart prepared by the Federal Reserve Bank at New York it may be seen that over a period of years the discount rate has moved pretty consistently on a ribbon formed by the private rates for commercial paper and bills. With the sharp downturn in the money market in the last few weeks the course of the reserve rate was changed.

Predictions of the future movements can be based on the trend of these important elements in the money market.

RECORD WALNUT CROP FORECAST

California Growers' Society Issues Estimate

Indicated Yield of 36,000 Tons Announced

Total Value of Output Set at About $16,000,000

California this year will produce the largest crop and the finest quality of walnuts ever produced in the history of the State, and the return to growers should approximate $16,000,000, also a new high record, according to a statement made yesterday by officials of the California Walnut Growers' Association.

Barring adverse weather conditions and further damage by walnut blight and other pests, the estimated total of California walnuts should total 36,000 tons, according to a survey of walnut-growing areas of the State just completed by the association.

This would compare with the previous high record of less than 30,000 tons shipped in 1925 and the exceedingly small crop of 12,000 tons shipped last year.

While the season's opening prices will not be announced by the California Walnut Growers' Association until October 5, the enormous California crop and an average crop in other walnut-producing areas of the world mean materially lower prices than those prevailing last year, when the smallest crop in years was marketed.

WEATHER FAVORABLE

Growing conditions in California this year have been almost ideal for walnuts, officials said. The early rains followed by favorable growing weather resulted in a very heavy setting of fruit on the trees and with the ideal summer weather prevailing the nuts are of large size and excellent quality.

Harvesting this year is expected to get under way late in September and the peak movement should take place during the first half of October and the first half of November. Due to the thorough setting of the fruit on the trees it is expected the harvest will be of shorter duration this year than in years past when the fruit setting has occurred in stages.

NEW DRYING METHOD

Many additional dehydrators have been installed by growers this year. The use of the dehydrator for walnuts can be dried ready for market within thirty to thirty-six hours, while by the old method of sun-drying approximately ten days are required. Association officials point out that because of the increased use of the dehydrator it will be possible for growers to have nuts ready for shipment to ten days earlier this year than usual.

The plan inaugurated last year of individualizing and naming "Diamond" nuts will again be followed by association members this year. The other grade will be called "Emerald" and will run approximately 15 per cent under price of the Diamond brand.

Approximately 150,000 acres in California are now planted to walnuts, one-third of which are now in full bearing, one-third are partially bearing, and one-third are yet to come into bearing. Nearly 5000 additional acres have been planted to walnuts in the current year.

Labor Plentiful, Report States

Labor will be in plentiful supply for harvest activities throughout California, the employment service of the United States Department of Labor predicts in its current report. Fruit picking in July employed large numbers of laborers and janitors. Apples also provided a strong source of demand. During August, the employment service states, additional workers will be needed for the peach harvest in Kings county, the grape harvest in Madera and Tulare counties and the nut harvest in the State county. Apple picking starts about September 1 in Santa Cruz and Tuolumne counties.

HAY MARKET STEADY

Prices Show Little Change as Surplus Goes to Store

The North American hay crop from present indications will exceed all previous records, states the weekly hay market review of the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics for the week ending the 13th inst. Prospects for the United States crop improved during July and tame hay production as of the 1st inst. was forecast at 100,000,000 tons, which is far the largest crop ever harvested, exceeding the previous record crop of 1924 by 4,000,000 tons. An indicated average yield of 1.69 tons per acre is also a record. This year's crop is particularly heavy in the North Central States and in the Southwest, but it exceeds the average of the last five years in all States except California, Oklahoma, Colorado and Utah.

Western alfalfa markets held about steady during the week. Supplies at Sacramento were somewhat in excess of the demand and caused slight variations in prices. Some of the surplus was placed in storage, which helped to relieve the situation and maintain prices. Stronger demand was in evidence at Los Angeles and more liberal buying by consumers, particularly feeders, was reported. Dealers were in the market for better grades and common to ordinary grades were being taken by local dealers. Shipments of Arizona hay are light and most of the surplus is being placed in storage. The crop in New Mexico is about 80 per cent of normal and is of good quality, mostly grading No. 1. About half of the crop is being placed in storage.

GOLD HOARD HELD MENACE

Swedish Economist Says Control by Reserve Board Amounts to Dictatorship of World's Prices

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT
(Copyright, 1927, by New York Evening Post, Inc.)
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—The Federal Reserve Board has become the financial dictator of the world with the power, through control of the American monetary policy, to influence the world's prices for years to come, declares Dr. Bertil Ohlin, a prominent Swedish economist.

Dr. Ohlin, a former graduate student at Harvard and now professor of economics at the University of Copenhagen, says that as the decision regarding a stabilization of the world price level lies in the hands of the leaders of the American policies, it is a tremendous responsibility.

A real deflation, declares the Swedish economist, would render Europe's economic recovery, if anything, still more difficult. "It may well be asked," he says, "whether the Federal Reserve Board is not a party responsible for the tardy improvement of the past few years."

Writing for the monthly bulletin of the Svenska Handelsbanken at Stockholm Dr. Ohlin says: "This power to influence the world's prices comes from the control of the world's largest gold reserves. The influx and efflux of gold in the United States has lost all influence upon the monetary purchasing power and the price level in that country. The question of granting credit is instead determined by what the Federal Reserve Board considers suitable from an economic point of view."

"This implies nothing less than a revolution in the monetary system not only of the United States but of all countries with a gold standard. The control of the development of the world price level has passed entirely into the hands of the Federal Reserve Board and governors."

"Should that board deem it advisable to pursue a liberal credit policy, resulting in the raising of the American price level, the consequence in the world price level."

SAFETY ZONES FOR DOLLARS
Practical Ways of Investing in Home Ownership, Savings Accounts, Life Insurance and Dependable Investment Securities

91.—BLUE SKY LAWS AND COMMON SENSE
Forty-two States of the Union now have blue-sky laws, especially designed to prevent as well as to stop the sale of fraudulent securities. Four other States have special fraud acts with the same purpose. Only two States have no laws aimed specifically at security frauds.

Most of these blue-sky laws differ widely. They contain, however, almost every kind and combination of safeguard possible for man to contrive to protect the savings of the overcredulous and thoughtless. Since the first experimental blue-sky act in Kansas in 1911 these laws in many States have been made much more effective. Blue-sky officers have been trained to administer them, and the ways of preventing fraud have been greatly improved. Activities of frauds have been whittled down year by year, although they still cause losses of between $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,000 annually. The reason these losses persist despite all the laws is that the law of legislation has yet been invented that will take the place of common sense.

No State can or does guarantee the securities that are sold within its borders. Yet intelligent people continually assume that their State's blue-sky law is a guarantee of any law tried to do—and that is a great deal—to see that the securities are honest and honestly sold. Whether they are a good buy or not, the factor that the individual's common sense cannot inform him, it can at least tell him to keep his savings in the hands of a trustworthy person or six months, until he can obtain dependable advice from able and honest sources.

(Next article, "Callable Bonds")

been given little opportunity to cover at a profit.

Repurchases Big Factor
In fact it was commented upon rather frequently in market circles today that repurchasing by sold-out bulls intent upon retreating into positions had played a big part in the recovery from the low levels of the previous week. With cover on a large scale by a bewildered herd of investors, the market was buoyed up by the repurchase of securities. The general run of stocks at a stage which is the market's appearance of considerable buoyancy during the day. While interests supporting the market through the recent sinking spell must have accumulated a substantial supply of pivotal shares, no trace of a return to market of such holdings has as yet been discerned.

Mail-Order Shares Strong
Shares of the leading mail-order enterprises were among the strongest and most active issues of the day. Sears-Roebuck rose sharply to new high levels, while Montgomery-Ward duplicated its previous top. As usual there was a revival of merger rumors which have been springing up at regular intervals. But in well-informed quarters there was a disposition to connect the rise with prospects of lively farm buying in the months ahead, this view arising from estimates placing the value of farm crops this year at $1,000,000,000 more than in 1926.

Steel His Monument
The great steel corporation, which he reared from infancy to its present magnitude will stand as lasting monument to the man whose keen judgment and unsurpassed sense of fair play has made it the impregnable fortress of corporate strength which it is today. Judge Gary and his conservative policies with regard to development of the corporation, have not always satisfied stockholders. Many have thought and quite openly expressed the belief that the corporation was entitled to more in the way of dividends than it had been receiving. But had it not been for the conservatism of the men who reigned as heads from its founding, it is unlikely that the stock would have the remarkable investment standing which it enjoys today.

Changes With Stock Dividend
But the judge lived to see his policies vindicated and to pass final judgment on the 40 per cent stock dividend paid early this year, which went far to soothe those who had been loud in their demands. Now, of course, those who have been awaiting his retirement with great expectancy are of a belief that a more liberal portion of profits will be placed in the hands of the stockholders. No doubt some of today's buying was founded on this belief.

Rubber Figures Poor
The much awaited United States Rubber report for the half year, while it proved distinctly poor by comparison with the first half of 1926, was nevertheless more satisfactory than most people had anticipated in view of recent rumors. Only recently it had been gossiped about that it was possible preferred dividends would hardly be covered. But the actual figures, however, showed requirements for the period fully covered with a balance of 78 cents a share for the common against $2.86 a share after preferred dividends last year.

The Clearinghouse
News of Spring Street
Crops of apples, peaches, pears, cherries and prunes in Northern California are all exceptionally heavy, reports W. M. Holbrook, manager of the credit department of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank. Mr. Holbrook returned yesterday from a vacation trip with his family on Russian River, near Healdsburg. While they were in the district the famous $300,000 Hartsook Inn on the Redwood Highway was destroyed by fire.

Gilbert Loken, Jr., formerly sales manager of the bond department of the Bank of Italy National Trust and Savings Association in Los Angeles, has just been elected to membership in the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange. Mr. Loken, who is now associated with Wilcox, Drake & Co., San Francisco, was elected to the seat of J. W. Drake of that house. Prior to his association with the Bank of Italy Mr. Loken was for many years connected with Leib, Keyston & Co. of San Francisco.

Local Exchange May Introduce Post Trading
Post trading may be installed on the floor of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange before the first of the year, according to a statement made yesterday by Frank L. Gardner, member of the exchange board of governors. Mr. Gardner will head a committee of exchange members leaving this week for San Francisco to study the operation of the system on the floor of the San Francisco Stock and Bond Exchange.

The system of post trading is used by the New York Stock Exchange and other large exchanges of the country, and, according to Mr. Gardner, is a much speedier way of handling sales than the system now used by the Los Angeles exchange. Post trading would also largely eliminate the confusion now experienced during an active market.

It is proposed to install four posts on the Los Angeles exchange floor. The most active stocks will be distributed among these posts. Separated stocks will also be allocated to various posts, as well as the bond issues.

COTTON MARKET
NEW YORK, Aug. 16. (Exclusive)—The sharp upturn in cotton contract prices of yesterday, when the market closed with an average net advance of 50 points recovery from Saturday's break, was continued from the opening today, with prices making a further gain of between 45 and 80 points before 2 o'clock, with more buying in by shorts and a large amount of contracts again taken by local trade and Liverpool speculators.

It brought October up to 19 5/8 cents; December, 19 3/4 cents; January, 19 3/4 cents; March, 20 1/4 cents; May, 20 1/4 cents, a gain of over 100 to 110 points, or $5.50 to $6.50 per bale from the low prices reached at the close on Saturday.

The bullish movement causing this further upturn in the market today were the same as those of yesterday, viz., renewed buying by Manchester and continental interests at Liverpool, with sharply higher prices there from what the trade had expected, the bullishness of the record-breaking amount of cotton taken for export of nearly 112,000 bales the day before, and also the new high record for new area from future Treasury supplies, but sizeable amounts from each of the latter two sources are in the nature of probabilities than possibilities.

All of which is to emphasize the plain fact that government debt reduction in this country is proceeding so swiftly that it now is only a matter of a few years as such things year.

Whereas, after the Civil War, this country required long years of patient effort to cut down its national debt from the $2,700,000,000 peak reached in 1866, it has already shaved down in handsome fashion the huge debt left after the great war. The peak after the late war was reached in August, 1919, at $26,500,000,000, but in the eight years that have elapsed the debt has been reduced to $18,000,000,000. It is being brought down now at the rate of $1,000,000,000 a year.

How rapidly the work of debt reduction will proceed depends upon a number of things. The flow of funds applicable to payments is largely governed by the amounts set aside in the sinking fund, prescribed by Congress, sums turned in as foreign debt repayments, and the Treasury surplus. The sinking fund in itself would extinguish the entire debt at a rapid rate, even though no money flows in from the foreign debts, and none from future Treasury surpluses, but sizeable amounts from each of the latter two sources are in the nature of probabilities than possibilities.

All of which is to emphasize the plain fact that government debt reduction in this country is proceeding so swiftly that it now is only a matter of a few years as such things year.

Disappearance of Federal Liens Forecast by Rapid Rate of Liquidation
NEW YORK, Aug. 16.—With the supply of all other bonds ever increasing, the outstanding supply of United States government obligations slowly but surely is falling.

In precisely what year the last of the national debt will be paid no body knows, but the prospect is that many now interested in investments will live to see the day when a Liberty bond or a Treasury bond is a possibility, but, given luck, the government could take up the last of these securities before then, if it desires.

Associated Public Utilities Corporation
First Lien Twenty-Year 5% Gold Bonds, Series A
Dated July 1, 1927
Due July 1, 1947

Principal and semi-annual interest payable January 1 and July 1 at the office of the Trustee in New York.
THE BANK OF AMERICA, NEW YORK, TRUSTEE

The Corporation agrees to pay interest without deduction for that portion of any normal Federal income tax, not exceeding 2%, which the Corporation or the Trustee may be required or permitted to pay at the source, and to reimburse the resident holders of these bonds, if requested within sixty days after payment, for the personal property tax in the States of Connecticut, Pennsylvania and California, not exceeding four mills per annum, in the State of Maryland not exceeding four and one-half mills per annum and in the District of Columbia not exceeding five mills per annum, and also for the income tax, not exceeding 5%, on the interest thereon in the State of Massachusetts.

Mr. C. Vincent Grace, President of the Corporation, summarizes his letter to us as follows:

Associated Public Utilities Corporation, incorporated under the laws of Delaware, now owns or is acquiring all the capital stocks (except directors' and officers' shares) of companies which furnish water for domestic and industrial purposes in fourteen growing communities as follows:

The Delaware River Water Company, serving Riverside, Beverly, Edgewater Park and other communities, all suburban to Camden, New Jersey, and all within fifteen miles of the business center of Philadelphia; Benwood & McMechen Water Company, serving a district suburban to Wheeling, West Virginia; The Jackson Mutual Water Company, serving the City of Jackson, the county seat of Jackson County, Ohio; The Frankfort Water Works Company, serving the City of Frankfort, the county seat of Clinton County, Indiana; Bartlesville Water Company, serving the City of Bartlesville, the county seat of Washington County, Oklahoma; Pacific Water Company, which has consolidated the ownership of the properties of South San Francisco Water Company, the water works property of William H. Howard Estate Company, and the properties of Peninsula Water Company, serving the Cities of South San Francisco, San Mateo and the adjacent areas on the San Francisco peninsula.

The total combined population of the communities served is approximately 100,000. The oldest of the properties has been actively operated since 1884 and all have been in continuous operation for many years.

CAPITALIZATION
(Upon completion of present financing)

|   | Authorized   | Issued      |
|---|--------------|-------------|
| First Lien Twenty-Year 5% Gold Bonds, Series A (this issue) | $2,870,000* | $2,800,000 |
| 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock                               | 1,000,000    | 1,000,000   |
| Common Stock (no par value)                                 | 20,000 shs.  | 20,000 shs. |

*The remaining $70,000 of this series and additional bonds of other series may be issued under conservative restrictions as provided in the Indenture.

SECURITY

The First Lien Gold Bonds will be secured, in opinion of counsel, by a direct first lien, through pledge with the Trustee of all outstanding stock (except directors' and officers' qualifying shares) and all bonds (or cash sufficient for the redemption thereof) of all the companies above mentioned. Any bonds or stocks of these companies hereafter issued shall be pledged under the Indenture securing this issue. Issuance of additional bonds is restricted by conservative provisions in the Trust Indenture.

CONSOLIDATED EARNINGS
(As reported by Barrow, Wade, Guthrie & Company for the 12 months ended June 30, 1927, and adjusted for non-recurring charges)

| Gross earnings (including non-operating income)                | $514,934 |
|--|-----------|
| Operating expenses, maintenance, taxes, etc.                   | 233,911   |
| Net earnings   | $281,023 |
| Annual interest requirements on total funded debt (this issue) | $140,000 |

The above net earnings are twice the annual interest requirements of the total outstanding funded debt.

The proceeds from the sale of these bonds will be used to acquire the stocks of certain of the operating companies, to retire all funded indebtedness against the properties outstanding in the hands of the public, to complete certain improvements now in progress, and for other corporate purposes.

Price 91 and accrued interest, to yield about 5 1/2 %

These bonds are offered for delivery when, as and if issued and received by us and subject to approval of counsel. It is expected that temporary bonds of the Corporation will be ready for delivery on or about August 29, 1927.

Takes Fling at American Men and British Women

Observations Based on Long
Life on Briny Deep

Whatever sterling qualities the American man has, and he has many, smart dressing is not one of them, the opinion of Capt. T. J. C. Buret, British master of the Royal Mail liner, is expressed in a fling at American men and British women, but they carry a wealth of grace, and said the only things they wear gracefully were tweed outfits.

Incidentally he said five years on the Pass of Balmain, which later became the famous German war raider, the Lochter, commanded by Count Felix von Luckner, now in port.

The Lochter, which was built for the German navy, was built in 1904, and was the first of a class of ships known as "pocket battleships."

Screen Jester Returns for Divorce Trial Monday

Rumors Persist That Case Will be Settled

Wife to Get $800,000 and Two Babies, Say Reports

Charles Chaplin, the screen's saddest jester, came back home yesterday, a silent and lonely figure whose chief thought was of the two babies whom he had left some eight months ago when he broke with his wife, Lita Grey Chaplin.

VISITS WITH BABIES

There, with his estranged young wife and mother-in-law in the background, the comedian sought out his two babies and spent the better part of a half hour caressing and playing with them. Just what transpired behind the closed doors of the mansion remained a secret, but, once the comedian emerged, he was driven rapidly away with his friend, Henry Bergman.

SETTLEMENT RUMORED

But in spite of his late announcement indications were not lacking that the case, if it ever does reach court, will do so in greatly modified form. Negotiations for a settlement, which will make the trial a routine divorce action lacking all the sensational elements which had been introduced into it, are understood to be under way and progressing favorably.

REPORTS DENIED

However, Mr. Wright denied flatly that anything but a court fight was impending. He said that the late Mrs. Chaplin's staff of attorneys, contented himself with a statement that there was nothing new in the case.

KEEPS TO HIMSELF

Through the day, Chaplin conferred with Mr. Wright at some length and visited his studios in Hollywood but kept to himself most of the time. His close friend, Mr. Bergman, explained it in a few words: "He is hopeless and he doesn't want company. He is not avoiding anyone but he would rather be by himself."

Moseley and Henry Find Keen Interest in Flying and Busy Plane Plants During National Tour

Climaxing their national air tour of more than 6000 miles with a 1300-mile flight from North Platte, Neb., yesterday, Maj. C. C. Moseley, vice-president in charge of operations for Western Air Express, and William M. Henry of The Times and the Chamber of Commerce committee on air transportation landed in Los Angeles last evening.

INTEREST IN FLIGHTS

"Everywhere we went," Mr. Henry said, "we found intense interest in the Hawaiian flights and in flying in general. All the leading cities have up-to-date airports and further rapid strides to improve on the present conditions will be noted in the future."

LARGER PLANES BUILDING

Aircraft output is on the increase, according to the Los Angeles envoys, as a consequence of the expanding manufacturing at the plants visited. New and larger planes will soon be on the commercial market and several of the same type are being built in Southern California, they stated.

THEATERS FACE STRIKE THREAT

Employees Demand Pay Rise and Shorter Hours

Walkout Set for September 1 if Owners Refuse

Exhibitors Assert Business Won't Stand Strain

The alternative of a strike intended to close virtually every theater in Los Angeles or acceptance of a contract in which theater owners agree for two years to pay more for less work on the part of union musicians, stage hands and motion-picture machine operators has been laid before the Theater Owners' Association by delegates of the unions.

CONFERENCE HELD

Conferences between the two groups are in progress with the hope by owners that the unions will modify the demands. Some of the owners believe that the demands were purposely exaggerated by union agents so a compromise ultimately may be effected that will give the union employees at least something of an increase and less work.

FIG SUBDIVISION

The petition of the plaintiff company asserts that it purchased the Pearson ranch, located in the Glenn-Colton Irrigation District of Glenn county in October, 1926. The property was of the land was $708,740, it is stated. The land was purchased for the purpose of subdividing it into acre tracts for the cultivation of Kadota figs.

The Lancer

Harry Carr

ANY important questions and problems have been referred to the Lancer for settlement and adjustment.

One lady requests that I make the garbage man stop slamming her door on the sidewalk in a rude and disastrous manner.

Another insists that I forbid the United States government from stealing the water power that belongs to the Flathead Indians.

And the Chamber of Commerce firmly recommends that I do something about the fact that a young literary man has annihilated the other young literary man who called Los Angeles a "harlot city."

As soon as I get around to it, I shall put the United States government in its place; but the garbage man always overdoes me.

Sheriff with Prisoner on Train Wins Against Airplane in Race

OFFICER BEATS HABEAS CORPUS

Takes Wanted Man Back East Despite Court Action

North Carolina Attorney Captured Here

Accused of Embezzlement from Client

Sheriff J. S. Ammons of Whiteville, N. C., won a race to the California border yesterday with a prisoner, E. Garland Brown, though he and his prisoner were aboard a train and their rivals in the race used the wings of an airplane.

These rivals were Deputy Sheriffs Bob Jones and Paul Reichter and they were armed with a court writ that would have held Brown here. Brown is an attorney and is said to be wanted in Whiteville on a charge of embezzling funds from a client.

Brown was arrested several days ago and was being held for Sheriff Ammons. Attorney Charles W. Cradick obtained a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of Brown from the Appellate Court and had the document served on the Sheriff. Brown was released on bail in the meantime.

WARRANT ISSUED
The Appellate Court writ, said to be the first of its kind ever issued here, automatically nullified attempts by North Carolina authorities to remove Brown before Attorney Cradick had an opportunity to present before the Appellate Court his reasons why Brown should not be removed. According to Capt. Fox of the Sheriff's office, Sheriff Ammons found Brown and placed him under arrest, leaving with him yesterday on the 9 a.m. train by the Southern Pacific southern route. When this information came in the District Court of Appeal issued a warrant, coming out of the habeas corpus proceeding, demanding that Sheriff Traylor immediately take Brown away from the North Carolina Sheriff.

WILD RACE
As the train already had left, Capt. Fox communicated with the Sheriff at Riverside and a deputy was sent to Indio to take the prisoner into custody. The demand of the Riverside deputy for custody of Brown was met with a flat refusal by Sheriff Ammons. As the deputy did not have the proper warrants he allowed the southern Sheriff to proceed with his prisoner.

When Capt. Fox was so notified he communicated with the Aero Corporation of California and arranged for a plane to pursue the limited train with the proper warrant. An attempt to overtake the train at Niland failed by three minutes. The flying deputies proceeded to the Arizona-California border, where they likewise met with failure in attempts to flag the train.

ARTIFICIAL SUNBURN PRODUCED

Film Players Find How to Be Tanned

It's an efficient and satisfactory way of looking real athletic," declare Josephine Dunn, Paramount player, who was the first to get one of the new appliances that colors the flesh.

"Frank Collins devised the air-brush beautifier, and it certainly works well. I use a preparation of my own, a combination of grease paint and hot water. This is put in a bottle, and blown, through the use of a small tube of compressed air, onto the skin. The sunburn remains for a week, despite water and hot weather. After it wears off, I renew it."

She also uses the air brush idea to make up her arms and neck for scenes in a picture. It is faster than putting on the cosmetics with the fingers, and is more cleanly.

"I have still another preparation for that," she continues. "A lighter but thicker grease paint is worked into cold cream, and I run this over my arms. It is a plan that works admirably on the days when I happen to sleep late."

"And if you really are sunburned," Miss Dunn concluded, "air brush will help, providing your arms have to be shown while in a scene. The brush will remove all evidence of nature's tan and you can wash off the paint without any trouble whatever."

FIXING CHARGE CALLED VAGUE

Malaby Indictment Held Worthless by Judge

Murray Declares Case Will Go to Jury Again

Reports Evidence Indicating Exorbitant Bond Plot

Branding the indictment against Charles Malaby, ball bondman, and asserted that, as ambiguous, and worthless in a court of law, Superior Judge Fricks yesterday sustained a demurrer to the document and referred the case back to the county grand jury for further action.

The action came as the first distinct victory for ball bondsmen who have been the subject of investigation and prosecution by the District Attorney's office in a campaign to eliminate ball bond manipulators and flacks from Los Angeles courts and jails.

HOLD INDICTMENT VAGUE

Malaby's case when first made public was declared by Dep. Dist. Atty. Forrest Murray, in charge of the investigation, to be "cut and dried" with all of the evidence necessary for a conviction in the hands of the grand jury.

In the indictment Malaby is charged with accepting $700 from William Barker, fix a liquor charge made against him. A sensation was created at the time of Malaby's arrest when he leaped from a ninth-floor window of an office building to the roof of an adjoining building in an attempt to evade arrest.

Attorneys representing the ball bondman yesterday argued that the indictment was worded so vaguely that no one of ordinary intelligence could tell just what was meant by its statements.

WILL BE RESUBMITTED

Dep. Dist. Atty. Murray stated last night that the matter would be presented to the grand jury again at its next session, and a new indictment drawn which will meet all the requirements of law.

In addition, Murray indicated that he has come into possession of new evidence indicating a conspiracy which made possible fixing of exorbitant bail-bond figures for the release of men charged with minor offenses. In some instances, he said, a prisoner's release on bond has cost him more than $100,000.

Malaby's own territory, being under his jurisdiction as Secretary of Commerce, spent the day fishing at Catalina yesterday. He returned to Avalon in the evening empty-handed.

Leaving at 7 a.m. Mr. Hoover, accompanied by his son Allan and Mr. W. Van Brunt in the latter's boat, the Ida M., headed for the east end of San Clemente Island, where both day before, and yesterday were reported the day before. San Clemente is Mr. Hoover's own territory, being under his jurisdiction as Secretary of Commerce.

Rough weather was encountered, and although several schools of tuna were sighted, the Secretary failed to land his fish. Swoodman, the particular aim of the party, was not encountered.

Mr. Hoover returned to Avalon after dark. He expressed himself as well satisfied with the day's sport, in spite of the fact that he failed to land his fish. His plans for today include another short trip to the fishing grounds, although this may be varied by a goat hunt in the interior of Santa Catalina Island.

He and his party will return to Los Angeles this afternoon. They will leave for Washington for a short official visit tomorrow, following which Mr. Hoover will resume his flood relief work on the lower Mississippi River.

VALENTINO MEMORIAL NEXT WEEK

Mass to be Celebrated Tuesday; Friends to Visit Cemetery; Work Halts

Next Tuesday is the first anniversary of the death of Rudolph Valentino and a group of friends and relatives will gather at the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills where a high mass is to be celebrated.

The services will start at 11 o'clock in the morning. Father Mullins officiating. The church was the scene of the burial service conducted over the actor's body a year ago. At 12:30 o'clock a group of intimate friends will journey to the Hollywood Cemetery where a brief ceremony will be conducted while wreaths will be laid over his casket.

The public has been invited to attend this service by Joseph M. Schenck, chairman of the memorial committee, and S. George Ullman, Valentino's former manager.

Exactly at noon, the hour of Valentino's passing, all work will cease at the United Artists' studios as a mark of respect. Other motion picture plants are planning to do likewise.

Among those who will be present at the morning and possibly the afternoon services are Mary Pickford, Douglas Fairbanks, Corinne Griffith, D. W. Griffith, Joseph M. Schenck, John W. Considine Jr., Mike Leves and others prominent in the industry.

FOUR MORE MILES TO BE PAVED IN VALLEY

VAN NUYS, Aug. 16.—It is announced here today that the Los Angeles Board of Public Works on Thursday will open bids for the paving of Burbank Boulevard from Lanarkshire Boulevard to Van Nuys Boulevard. The project calls for about four miles of concrete paving, including curbs, sidewalks, and sanitary sewers. The new highway, when completed, will be the most direct traffic artery between Van Nuys and what is now known as the North Hollywood section. Travel will be greatly relieved from Chandler and Victory Boulevards and Vanowen street, which within the last year has almost doubled.

COUNCIL TO REVIEW FISH PEDDLERS' BAN

Regulations recently passed prohibiting the sale of fish and meats from wagons are to be reconsidered at a meeting of the Sanitary and Health Committee of the City Council one week from today. Representatives of the Fish and Meat Merchants' Association, who oppose the ordinance, announced they will give their views and attempt to show their business to be legitimate in every way and a great convenience to housewives. A large attendance is expected at the hearing.

HOOVER HAS POOR LUCK AT FISHING

Secretary Spends Day in Quest of Ocean Game Off Islands, But Gets None

Herbert Hoover, Secretary of Commerce, spent the day fishing at Catalina yesterday. He returned to Avalon in the evening empty-handed.

Leaving at 7 a.m. Mr. Hoover, accompanied by his son Allan and Mr. W. ## Actress Dies After Illness Lasting Year

Miss Dorris Prince, 28 years of age, known on the stage and screen as Dorris Dare, died early yesterday morning at her home in the Loeb Apartments, 1030 West Eighth street.

Mrs. Emma Lynch, a neighbor, said the girl had no relatives and that no friends had visited her since she became ill. Since coming to this city eight years ago, according to Mrs. Lynch, she worked in several stage productions and in motion pictures.

The body was removed to the Ruppe Mortuary, 845 South Figueroa street, where the funeral services will be conducted, the date to be announced later.

Hand-bag Theft Held Specialty of Young Pair

After several weeks of investigation and search, detectives last night arrested two youths on suspicion of numerous thefts of hand bags, suit cases and satchels. The suspects gave their names as Robert Norton and Ray Zorn, both 21 years of age. In their rooms at 1816 South Los Angeles street the officers seized they found enough hand bags to equip a large number of traveling salesmen.

These were taken to Central Station and opened. While they were going on, Mrs. Rowena McKay of Santa Cruz came in to report the theft of a bag from her parked car near the station. The bag, which was recovered, fell to the floor in a faint. She soon recovered consciousness, however, and departed with her hand bag, her face wreathed in smiles.

Detective Lieutenants Kleinfeld, Collins and Jones and Capt. Peterson succeeded in running down the asserted thieves after trailing them for some weeks. The youths were booked on suspicion of larceny.

Pasadena Ranks High for Police

Pasadena averages well up among the other cities of the State in police protection, according to the California Taxpayers' Association, which made public yesterday its study of the subject for the fiscal year 1926-27. The report covers Sacramento, Stockton, Alameda, Fresno, Berkeley and Bakersfield in addition to Pasadena.

Pasadena ranks second in ratio of police to population with one to every 1212 persons, pays a third highest salary to its Chief of Police, and ranks with Alameda and Berkeley in number of police per square mile with three.

There are forty-three felony counts, mostly embezzlement, in the complaints, which will be heard before Justice of the Peace Patterson at Bishop.

LEADER OF CITY SCHOOL HEALTH DIES

Dr. C. F. Curtis Succumbs of Heart Disease After Sixteen Years in City

Dr. C. F. Curtis, head of the health department of the Los Angeles school system, died of heart disease at his temporary home at Hermosa Beach yesterday. He was 64 years of age.

Dr. Curtis was a native of Bath, Me. He was a graduate of Bowdoin College of Brunswick, Maine, New York, and of Hering Medical College. After twenty-five years' practice in his native city, he came to Hollywood in 1911, when he was commissioned a captain in the army and assigned to the One Hundred and Sixty-first Infantry.

During the World War he served at Camp Lewis and at Monterey. In 1920 he was appointed head of the health department of the city schools, and was filling this position at the time of his death.

Dr. Curtis leaves his widow, Mrs. C. F. Curtis, and a son and daughter. The funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Grant funeral parlors, Sierra Madre. Interment will be in the Mountain View Cemetery.

An advisory committee of educational authorities from the Trojan faculty co-operates with Prof. M. M. Thompson, principal of the university high school.

DIABETES

Why people are turning to vital foods as the logical means to health

MANY health authorities now advise maintenance of the body's normal metabolism is the basis of every all-around health, particularly in the case of chronic diseases, which are largely the result of a disturbed metabolism. In the blood, kidneys, stomach, liver, pancreas, heart and other organs of the body, how they function is the key to health. If any of these organs fail to function properly, the result is a disturbed metabolism, which is the cause of many of our modern diseases. Therefore, it is pointed out, the right way to overcome disease is to correct metabolism by supplying the body with the right food.

Physicians and scientists have long known of agumel and have sent many sufferers from diabetes and kidney disorders to Mexico to drink it. The natives have used it for centuries to maintain health. Dozens of books and treatises have been written about agumel. But as the sap spoils like fresh milk, and cooking destroys its valuable properties, it has never been available outside Mexico until recent years. Now by a process of air evaporation it has finally been concentrated without cooking. Nothing removed except water. Free from drugs and alcohol.

The concentrated concentrate, known as Agmel, is now being exported to many parts of the world. Thousands have used it. Physicians in increasing numbers are prescribing it. This concentrated agumel is for sale at leading drug stores. Imported only by Agmel Corporation, Los Angeles.

Gasoline to Double in Price,
Declares Geologist

Wasteful Methods Felt in Next Ten Years

Shale and Coal Held Future
Sources of Fuel

Gasoline and lubricating oils will double in price within ten years, it was predicted yesterday at the Biltmore by W. J. A. M. Van Der Gracht, geologist and petroleum expert.

Present excessive oil production and waste, which he thinks tend toward the exhaustion of the nation's petroleum resources, and changing economic conditions were given by Mr. Van Der Gracht as the reasons for his views.

Although the cost of petroleum is bound to increase ultimately, curtailment of excess production and waste and the conservation of natural resources are the only means that can be used to delay or avert a price rise during the next decade, according to the oil expert.

WASTEFUL METHODS

Present fields are being rapidly depleted all over the United States, and in some instances by the use of wasteful methods, which proved that the production of more than 30 or 40 per cent of the actual oil in the ground, he stated. These methods will result in 60 or 70 per cent of the oil that might possibly be brought to the surface remaining in the oil sands forever, he declared.

There is so much talent being used in both the discovery and drilling of new fields where gas is being found and oil produced cheaply that such possibilities will be exhausted, according to his statements.

"These two factors," he said, "will make it necessary to secure the nation's oil supply in a few years from wells where production is small and overhead costs high. Necessarily higher prices will follow."

NO SHORTAGE—JUST HIGH

"This also means that ten years from now there will be no actual shortage of gasoline and lubricating oil, but the supply from the wells will not all the demand and the oil companies will look toward shale mines, lignites and coal as the sources from which to obtain the remainder of the petroleum demanded by market conditions."

Fortunately, according to Mr. Van Der Gracht, tremendous production of both gasoline and lubricants from shale and other sources mentioned is possible in fields that have already been explored. At the present retail prices in most instances it is unprofitable to refine oils from these resources because of high mining and retorting costs, he declared. Higher prices will enable the owners of such properties to make use of their holdings at a profit, he added. Oil cannot generally be produced from shales now at less than approximately twice the present sales prices of petroleum, he stated.

CINEMAMEN DENY RUMOR OF OUSTINGS

Plan to Replace High-Pay Players Declared Never Has Been Considered

Rumors to the effect that several large motion-picture companies are planning to replace their high-salaried stars on expiration of existing contracts, met with emphatic denials yesterday when the heads of several studios were questioned.

Officials of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, the Paramount-Panorama-Leasky studio, and United Artists stated they never had heard of such a plan and added they believe the attempt of such a thing would be foolish.

The rumor started several weeks ago following the failure of a wage-cut plan proposed by the producers which was abandoned after the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences suggested other economy moves. The rumor is to the effect that the producing companies will make a concerted effort to reduce salaries by refusing as a body to renew high-salaried stars. New and unknown persons would be exploited to supplant the existing players.

Officials of the Actors' Equity Association are said to be preparing to fight the move in case it is carried through. However, Conrad Nagel, local chairman of the body, and Frank Gilmore, executive secretary of the organization, declared themselves in the dark. They stated such action would be possible but unwise.

NEW POSITION URGED

City Superintendent of Buildings Backus has recommended to the City Council that the position be created of assistant superintendent of buildings at a salary of not less than $500 a month.

HARBOR LEASE PROPOSED

The Board of Public Works has recommended to the Board of Supervisors that quarters be leased in the new branch City Hall at the harbor for the Municipal Court of that district.

Importance of Hand Signals
Also Stressed in Talk by Traffic Expert

It is the driver's duty always, before making a turn or stopping to make sure that the movement may be accomplished safely, said E. L. Johnson of the police bureau of public safety declared in a talk over KJL yesterday. When not absolutely sure that it is safe to start, turn or stop, motorists should wait until safety is certain.

The speaker also called attention to the officially-recognized hand signals which always should be given before making a traffic movement. Obeyance to these two precautions, he said, should reduce traffic accidents to a minimum.

REVERSAL OF KERRICK CASE ASKED

Court Takes Appeal of Five Under Consideration;
Kempsey Also Pleads

After lengthy arguments the Appellate Court yesterday took under consideration the appeal of Sarah Kerrick and four other persons charged with slaying Tom Kerrick, film cowboy, at a party in Hollywood recently.

Attorneys Wilborn Maycock and Clarence M. Booth argued on behalf of the accused that the judgment should be reversed because of errors made by the trial court. They contended that instructions given to the jury were not properly founded in the Criminal Code and permitted the admission of evidence which failed to justify the verdict.

Mrs. Kerrick is the widow of the deceased. The others whose appeals were heard are Joe Hunt, Henry Isabel, Iris Burns and Anita Davis. Justice Works, Craig and Thompson sat on the bench. Dep. Atty.-Gen. Richards appeared for the State.

Without argument the appeals of Chester C. Kempsey, former District Attorney of San Diego county, and his assistant, Guy C. Selleck, were ordered submitted and they were convicted on bribery charges.

COURT KNOCKS OUT PUGILIST

Judge Rules Fighting Not Acting When Young Prizefighter
Seeks Authority to Contract With Manager
Under Law for Minor Actors

Whatever the customers may think about it, in the eyes of the law prize fighting is not acting, nor is it even "dramatic entertainment," and the courts are not in the ring business.

Presiding Judge Collier, of the superior court, settled this question, as far as it concerns the court of Los Angeles county, yesterday, when he declined to approve a contract whereby Douglas Hollis, 19-year-old aspirant for the fame and lure of the ring, proposed to engage the services of E. R. Garig, as manager, to promote his destiny in the welterweight division.

The matter came up before Presiding Judge Collier as the first effort in this county to take advantage of the new law passed by the last Legislature providing for the making of a valid and binding contract with a minor.

The act provides that a minor will be bound by a contract for services as an actor or in dramatic entertainment, if the contract be signed by a judge of the superior court, in addition to the two principals. It was adopted at the instance of the theatrical difficulties that arise when juvenile actors, made highly valuable by costly promotion work, attempt to jump the traces on the ground that they cannot be bound.

Some one gave young Mr. Hollis and his manager-elect the idea that the law included prizefighters, too, and they had repaired to Judge Collier's chambers with a contract all drawn up. But Judge Collier, before signing the dotted line, read the act. It says nothing about fighters.

"And fighting isn't acting, legally, at any rate," Judge Collier declared. "So there is no warrant in the law for my having anything to do with this proposal."

VON LUCKNER TO SPEAK

Count Felix Von Luckner, who during the war was commander of the sea-raider, Seeadler, will be the speaker at noon today at the Masonic Club. Other guests will be Countess Von Luckner, Capt. Robert Lyre, German Consul, Capt. Julius E. Lanterbach, chief navigating officer of the cruiser Emden, Capt. L. E. Kimmann, secretary of Count Von Luckner, and Miss Bernice Barrie. Count Von Luckner is now on a world-wide mission of goodwill and is in command of the Vallerland at Los Angeles Harbor.

Elusive Bootleg Suspect in Court

Entering a plea of guilty to a charge of possessing liquor, Pete Metzler, said by police to be Hollywood's most elusive bootlegger, yesterday appeared before Municipal Judge Bush and requested sentence be withheld until tomorrow morning.

When taken into custody by Detective Lieutenants Leslie and Roy the defendant is asserted to have had liquor valued at $10,000 stored in his home at 7321 Oakwood avenue. Several cases of champagne and whisky and eighty-five cans of alcohol were confiscated in the raid, together with other assorted drinks, arresting officers reported.

The detectives declared that they have been trailing Metzler since April, seeking evidence against him, but each time he evaded them.

PAYING ORDINANCE WINS

The final ordinance for the paying of the widened Slauson avenue from Figueroa street to Seventh avenue was adopted by the City Council yesterday, on motion of Councilman Shaw. This is a link in the widening and paving of Slauson avenue as a wide through traffic artery.

DAMAGES AWARDED

On motion of Councilman Foster, the City Council yesterday confirmed the awards of damages and assessments for the paving of Emerald street from Second to Third street. This improvement will cost $56,000, and Councilman Foster said it should be expedited as it has been proposed for many years.

Mate Too Rude to Love, She Says

Asserts He Insulted Her Friends
Mrs. Bernard Fineman (Evelyn Brent) who obtained divorce after hearing where Priscilla Dean corroborated wife's story.

HARSH WAYS OF FINEMAN TOLD COURT
Evelyn Brent Declares Husband Was Very Rude; Priscilla Dean Concurs

Bernard Fineman, motion-picture executive, take it from Evelyn Brent, actress, who lived with him more than two years and professes to know, is an extremely rude man. To which Priscilla Dean subscribes. Miss Brent and Miss Dean told Judge Sproul in Superior Court yesterday. All about the asserted rudeness of Mr. Fineman, with the result that Miss Brent came away with an interdictory decree of divorce, the finding of the court being that Fineman is too rude even for a husband.
"Such a rude man," exclaimed Miss Brent. "Why, he made it impossible for me to have any of my friends in our home. He told me our home was for his friends, not for mine. Mine he would insult."
"Such insults," corroborated Miss Dean. "They would make Miss Brent quite ill. I have been there many times and heard the insults and seen Miss Brent ill afterward."
There was no argument about alimony, that matter having been taken care of by a property settlement. Fineman has agreed to pay Miss Brent $12,000 on the installment plan, at the rate of $200 a week. She also will receive jewelry and securities worth $30,000 and just to make everything secure, Fineman contracts to carry $50,000 worth of insurance on his life in her favor.
They were married November 1, 1922, and separated in February, 1925, when the rudeness of Fineman became positively intolerable, according to Miss Brent.

OFFICIAL'S CASE BOON TO RECALL

Mrs. Holman Says Petition Against Cryer Will Be Ready in September

Mrs. Estelle C. Holman, former secretary to Councilman Charles H. Randall and the City Planning Commission, who is in charge of the recall petition being circulated against Mayor Cryer, said yesterday that the arrest of Councilman Jacobson has given impetus to the recall movement.

Mrs. Holman declined to state the number of signatures so far received and checked at the recall headquarters, 331 South Hill street, but said that at the present rate she would be able to file the petition in September.

A total of 32,000 signatures of registered voters is required to call a special election, but as petitions usually shrink on checking, as many signers are not registered voters, Mrs. Holman said that she would file 50,000 signatures.

"We have 400 volunteer workers out with petitions now," said Mrs. Holman, "and as soon as these come in and are checked we will announce the number of signatures to date. I wish to make it clear that I am not starting a recall against Mayor Cryer but am merely crystallizing in this petition a strong demand for it that we find exists in all parts of the city."

The reasons given on the petition for the Mayor's recall are as follows:

(a) The administration of the office of Mayor George E. Cryer is the most vicious, inefficient, and disastrious which the people of the city of Los Angeles have ever been compelled to endure.

(b) That deplorable conditions in the Harbor Board are due to the administration of Mayor George E. Cryer.

(c) The enforcement of laws against open places of dissolute character is notoriously lax.

(d) The ruthless orgy of overlapping assessments for storm drains in wholly unnecessary localities in order that favored contractors may reap high profits has shocked the city.

In case the recall petition is filed and declared sufficient, the special election must be held within sixty days after the certification of the petition as sufficient. In such case candidates for Mayor may file petitions with the City Clerk to place their names on the recall ballot. The name of Mayor Cryer will appear automatically as one of the candidates.

JACOBSON FUND MOVE LAUNCHED

Mass Meeting Donates $50 Toward Defense

Action Follows Appeal of Campaign Manager

Voluntary Witness Against Woman Promised

Starting a defense fund for Councilman Jacobson, passing a resolution demanding a thorough investigation of the charges against the Councilman and the reading of a letter purported to have been written by an asserted newly formed citizens' vigilance committee were the outstanding steps taken at a mass meeting conducted last night under the auspices of the El Sereno Improvement Association at 4605 Huntington Drive. Approximately 300 people attended.

The action taken at the meeting followed an announcement made earlier in the day by William V. Anderson, attorney for Jacobson, to the effect that a railroad conductor voluntarily has come forth with an affidavit that Mrs. Callie Grimes, the woman in the case, once tried to "frame" him.

At last night's mass meeting Roy C. Teel, manager of Councilman Jacobson's last campaign, announced that the Councilman can not afford to adequately fight the charges against him and made a plea for financial aid. He stated that headquarters for the defense fund have been established at 2725 North Broadway. To start it off, a collection totaling more than $50 was made at the mass meeting.

The resolution unanimously adopted was similar to those passed at several other recent mass meetings and asserted belief in Councilman Jacobson's innocence as well as demanding punishment for officers declared to be in what was called by members of the sponsoring organization a "frame-up."

Mysteriously laid on the chairman's table before the meeting a letter was read which stated in part, "The vigilance committee is in possession of the true facts concerning this disreputable frame-up of your Councilman and we will see also that the members of the police department who participated in that affair as well as other public officials who state the truth and resign their respective offices or we will be compelled to exercise our rights as has been granted to us from the beginning of this country."

VIGILANTES ABROAD
The letter was signed by the Citizens' Vigilance Committee of Los Angeles and was addressed to the El Sereno Improvement Association. It was typewritten and unsigned. In it was also made a statement that funds were ready by the purported organization to carry on a campaign for Councilman Jacobson.

G. F. Rose, president El Sereno Improvement Association, presided at the meeting and introduced the speakers, all of whom were steadfast in their belief of Councilman Jacobson's innocence and scored asserted corruption in civic administration circles. The speakers were: Thomas F. Mercer, president Thirteenth Councilman's Civic Improvement Association; Robert H. representative City Employees' Benevolent Protective Association; L. G. Kingdon, representative of the Thirteenth District Republican Club and David H. McDougall, newspaperman.

The affidavit involving Mrs. Grimes in the asserted conductor "frame-up," with its maker's name withheld, was read to newspaper reporters by Anderson in support of the Councilman's declaration that he was tured to the women's home where the arrest took place on moral charges as the result of a frame-up against him because of his crusading against vice.

ACCUSER SECRET
To this A. P. C. Steffen and Vincent C. Hickson, attorneys for Mrs. Grimes, replied that it becomes a man in a morals case to besmirch the woman in an attempt to defend himself at her expense.

Anderson said the railroad man wishes his identity to remain secret, but that the incident was sworn to. It was declared to have occurred ten years ago in India.

Riverside county records say that Victor S. Grimes and Callie Michael procured a marriage license there May 12, 1917. Their residence was given as India. The two are reported to have separated a few months ago. Jacobson's attorneys have announced that they will question him concerning Mrs. Grimes when he arrives here soon from Chicago.

The Councilman is to be tried on a morals charge in Municipal Court September 6. The woman is to be tried on a similar charge the next day.

Circus to Aid Church in Long Fight for Home

In April of 1925 David E. D. Robertson agreed to be pastor pro tem of a church in Sherman. Some one donated an old piano, others volunteered their services as musicians and teachers, and for two years regular services have been conducted in stores, theaters and at private homes. Today the congregation is building a beautiful new temple to house the members of Christ Episcopal Church, and many nonchurchgoers are supporting the work.

To help provide funds for the new church, of which Rev. A. H. Wurtele is pastor, members of the motion picture colony, with Buck Jones and his horsemen featuring the bill, will stage a circus on the afternoon and evening of the 25th inst., at the Evans ranch, Alta Vista and Sunset Boulevard, West Hollywood. Among the stars to appear in person are Princess Oklahoma, who will do fancy riding and shooting; Mrs. Bell Jones and little Miss Maxine, 9-year-old daughter of the Fox studio star; Gray Eagle, Jones's pony, a score of pretty girls and clowns. There also will be a lawn fete and a big side show.

Mrs. Edgar Norton of Hollywood is chairman of the exhibition.

JAPANESE WINNER OF ART PRIZE

A young Japanese student at the Otis Art Institute yesterday was awarded first prize of $50 for the best poster characterizing the National Conference of Catholic Charities. His name is Charles Morimoto, 20 years of age and eight years a resident of Southern California. He is the son of a Japanese gardener and received his education at St. Agnes' Catholic School, Los Angeles, and the Pasadena High School. He lives at 5589 South Vermont avenue.

He won the award in competition with thirty other students of poster composition at the institute and at the University of California at Los Angeles. His poster will be the official one for the conference in September.

Claude G. Putnam, Los Angeles artist, and Sam Hyde Harris, also prominent in professional art circles, joined with Rev. Edward R. Kirk, rector of St. Basil's Church and member of the bishop's committee of arrangements, in making the contest. Next in rank of merit of the posters submitted were those of Lila Law and Helena M. Ragan of the Otis Institute, and Virginia Warden of the University of California at Los Angeles.

Juvenile Court Plan in Mexico Outlined to Club

A comparison of the Mexican and American juvenile courts was the subject of discussion at the Republican Business and Professional Club meeting yesterday noon at the Alexandria, Mexico's only woman judge, Guadalupe Zunega, was introduced by the Mexican Vice-Consul, Joel Quinones, and Judge Ben Lindsey, who represented the American point of view, was presented by Mrs. Amelia Johnson, Deputy City Prosecutor.

Judge Lindsey stated that he does not believe in free love and that compassionate marriage is merely the right to regulate the size of the family.

The Mexican woman judge explained their system of consultation by three judges, one a doctor, one a teacher and the third a woman psychologist, which is followed in all children's cases.

EXECUTIVE GOES NORTH

R. M. Spangler, for five years an account executive with Smith & Ferris Advertising Agency here, has been transferred to San Francisco to further the sales plans of Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson, oldest and one of the largest wholesale hardware and metal concerns in the West. Smith & Ferris handles the Holbrook, Merrill & Stetson advertising account.

Great North-coast Vacation Trip

[to the Evergreen Playgrounds]
the finest vacation you ever had

Straight to the charmed land of the Pacific Northwest. See Crater Lake, Columbia River Highway, Mts. Rainier and Baker. Go boating on picturesque Puget Sound. Climb glaciers. Enjoy golf and every outdoor sport in a splendid scenic setting. Only by going on the train can you see so much of the west coast so easily and in such short time.

A glorious travel experience. You will board the West Coast, leaving Los Angeles at 6:05 p. m. A well-appointed, fast train direct via Sacramento to Portland, with Pullmans through to Tacoma and Seattle. Only 39 hours to Portland—just two nights on the train. Or you can go direct to San Francisco and continue north from there. Connections at northern terminals for Vancouver, Victoria and other Pacific Northwest points.

The West Coast travels over Southern Pacific's new Cascade line in Oregon. Snow-capped Mt. Shasta can be seen for hours from your car window.

Return same way or via San Francisco, on the deluxe Cascade, one of the finest trains in the world. Or you can come south on the Shasta or Oregonian via the Siskiyou line of the Shasta route. Oregonian carries new open-top observation car over thrilling Cascade line in daylight. Ten trains from San Francisco to Los Angeles via Coast or Valley lines, including the famous Daylight and the San Joaquin Flyer—popular day trains.

Your greatest vacation trip, you'll say. Your holiday starts when you board the train. Surprisingly economical, too; note these examples of low roundtrip fares, good for 16 days.

FILM ACTOR CLEARED IN DOG DEATH

Friends Crowded Courtroom to Testify in Behalf of Charles Puffy

As prominent personages of the film world took up vigil in the courtroom, many of them anxious to testify, Municipal Judge Wilson yesterday found Charles Puffy, film actor, not guilty of a charge of cruelty to a pet dog owned by J. Farrell McDonald, also an actor.

After two witnesses had been heard in behalf of McDonald, who contended that his dog, a fox-terrier, had died after being struck on the head by Puffy, Judge Wilson agreed that there was no evidence showing willful cruelty on the part of the defendant. He then granted Attorney Nathan O. Freedman's motion for dismissal of the complaint.

Ernest Lubitsch, film director, and Mrs. Lubitsch, among others of prominence in the film world, voluntarily appeared in court to offer their testimony in Puffy's behalf, but were not called to the stand.

Puffy's defense counsel, Attorney Freedman, showed that McDonald's dog on numerous occasions had attacked canine pets belonging to the defendant. Freedman argued that Puffy was forced to strike the animal in defense of Mrs. Puffy, when the animal attacked her on July 6, last.

THAT GAY YOUNG SET
The Iconoclast
By LUCILLE VAN SLYKE

NOTE: This is one of a series of short stories, each complete in itself, in which is retold the uncivil war between the youngsters and the elders of an old-fashioned town.

luted the officer smartly, and drove discreetly away from there. Ten minutes later, she had sixteen young women shrieking with glee at her excuse for her tardy arrival.

"And, Ninny," she ended, turning to her hostess, "you'd have simply passed out of the picture yourself if you could have seen your gallant Harry bowing the old gal into his front door."

"My cousin, who is a sculptor, says," Grace Sherman's voice went on "if some progressive town would set an example, these things could be replaced with something really good. He says that we ought to have symbolic things with parks around them."

It sounded like a grand and glorious idea. Sixteen young women went to it simultaneously. They didn't form any committees or draw up any resolutions, they just went and did it. They didn't form any committees or draw up any resolutions, they just went and did it.

Nina called Babe Bliss over from her desk in the hallway and engaged the east drawing-room for a tea-party in honor of the sculptor. Babe admitted it was a dash of an idea, but she threw deep gloom over the assembly by asking how they were going to get the old monument out of the way.

"The Ralstons and the Warringtons and all that crowd put it there

American heroes of all times. He suggests a single symbolic figure of a young woman that shall typify Victory.

Miss Ralston gazed with horror upon a reproduction of the sketch for the figure. The artist, evidently had made it hastily, for he'd not had time to put many clothes on Victory. Strangely enough, she looked not unlike Miss Ada Winslow.

Miss Ralston rose in her wrath. She had the presence of mind to remember that the Literary League was meeting at ten o'clock and the Literary League was a perfect organization for drawing up petitions and appointing committees and bringing injunctions.

She went out to her Ritz Eight, pushed back her hat, lashed her spectacle-chain to her ear, grasped the wheel, and, without so much as looking at the chair on the windshield, started that car!

As she crossed the Post-Road, Officer Mulligan stepped briskly out from the moral may-hemorrhage of the Spirit of Eighteen Sixty-One and held up a very large hand.

Miss Ralston believed he did it to be spiteful. Possibly he did it because a red signal flashed. Anyway, he did it. At the same time, with a beaming smile, he beckoned to Miss Ada Winslow, who was looking wonderful that morning in an emerald green suit. At Miss Winslow's side rode that eminent young sculptor, Gideon Franklyn Smith.

Miss Ralston, staring at the officer's hand, honestly tried to remember paragraph six on page sixteen about holding a car in traffic. Something about letting the right foot slide.

She let the right foot slide. Only, she let it slide down hard on the accelerator instead of the foot-brake.

Officer Mulligan did an inspired flourish. The iron fence that guarded the Commemorative Spirit crumpled in terror as the Ritz Eight plunged into the brick base that had been upholding the Commemorative Spirit ever since eighteen seventy-one.

While the mortals may have grown weary of holding the bricks, or the bricks may have grown tired of holding so much spirit. Anyway, they all quit at the same instant and, if the status hadn't been a hollow sham that burst neatly under the strain of the Ritz Eight's trousseau, somebody would have been killed by the impact.

"Gideon, darling!" screamed Miss Winslow.

"Ada, my angel!" yelled the sculptor.

Miss Ralston's shriek sounded high above the crash that drew a gathering throng.

The bigger the throng, the larger the glory for Mulligan.

"Madame," he lied stoutly, as he pulled Miss Ralston out of the wreckage, "it's sorry I am to tell you that you're under arrest for public intoxication, for obstructing traffic, for disturbing the peace, endangering lives and—"

A grand moment, only she suddenly recognized him.

"Timmy Mulligan!" she snapped, "shut up! Have somebody clear away that rubbish! It had no business getting in the way of my car, and you know it!"

SCIENTISTS TO BE SENT TO ORIENT
Specimens for Los Angeles Museums Will be Hauled by Shipping Board Free

At the request of Senator Shortridge, Commissioner Teller of the Shipping Board yesterday arranged for the sending of a small group of scientists to the Orient to collect ornamental specimens for public exhibition purposes and the return of the specimens on Shipping Board boats without cost, according to Washington dispatches. The scientists will be paid a nominal fare of $6 a day while en route and all of the freight handling charges at both terminals will be paid by a government department. The collection of the material will be carried without charge.

The expedition to the Orient is going to collect specimens for the San Diego and Los Angeles zoological societies, the California Botanical Garden and the Los Angeles Museum of Science and Art.

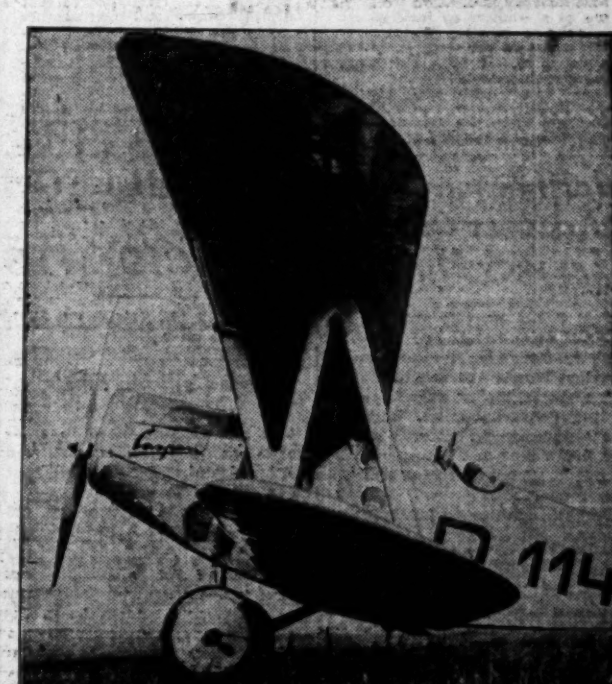

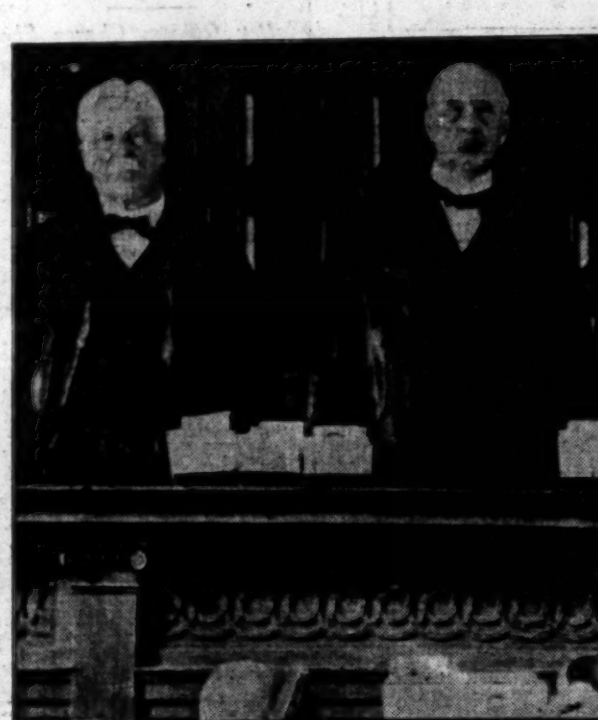

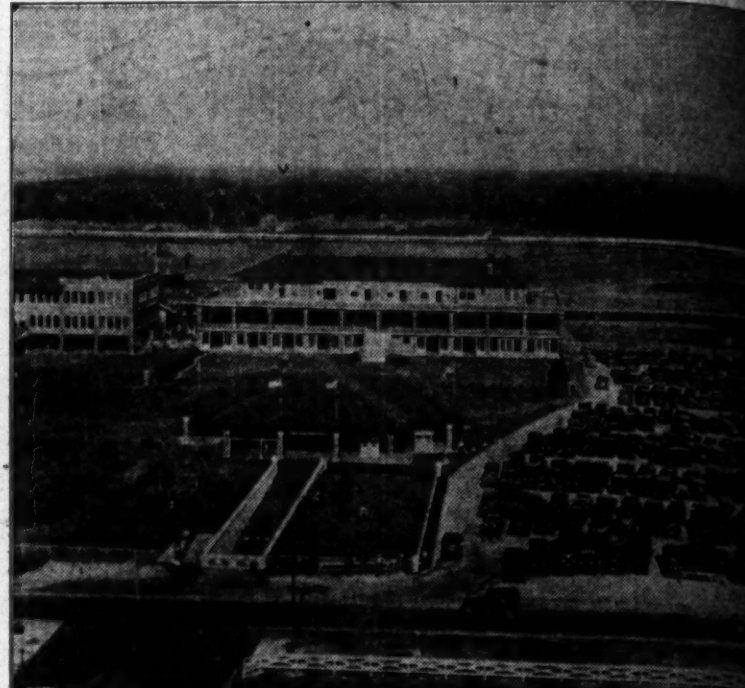

The Shipping Board boats operated by Sawney & Hoyt of San Francisco will be used.
